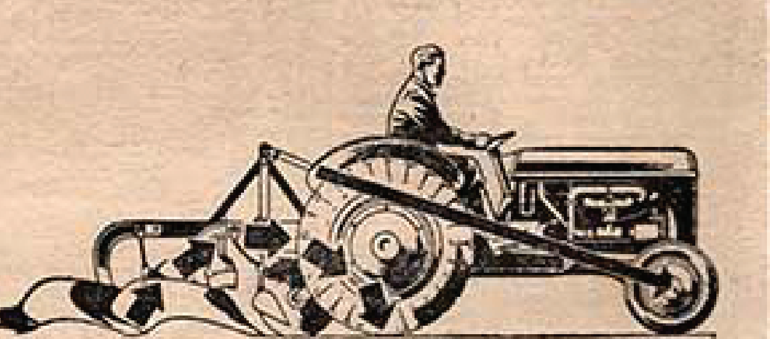
Get more traction without built-in weight



FARM BETTER, FARM FASTER WITH FERGUSON

Excess weight packs the soil, impedes drainage. With the "Ferguson System" of complete farm mechanisation, you get more traction without built-in weight, more front wheel stability. Hydraulic depth control and 3-point linkage between Ferguson tractor and plough or other implement makes this possible. Tractor carries, does not drag, weight of implement, even while working the ground. Necessary traction is automatically provided.

CRICKET.

A meeting of representatives of Cornish youth and cricket organisations at Truro, Thursday week, decided to set up a youth cricket council for Cornwall. The step was taken with the full support of the M.C.C.

South Petherwin v. Launceston.

This 25 over match at South Petherwin on Thursday week resulted in a win for the visitors by 23 runs. Launceston batted first and made 54, Reeve with 25 being the only batsman to reach double figures. Congdon 4-19 and Wills 4 for 21 were the most successful home bowlers. South Petherwin replied with 31, Harvey with 9 being their top scorer. Reeve followed up his good batting by taking 4-9, while P. West had 4-18.

Gunnislake v. Colecroft.

Rain delayed play for some time in this match at Hawkmoor, in which Colecraft (Plymouth) made 85 for 1 (Sims n.o. 25, Clarke n.o. 59), and Gunnislake scored 69 for 3 (Veal 17, Gibson 27, and Wyatt n.o. 18). For Gunnislake, Bailey took 1 for 35.

Camelford v. R.A.F. St. Eval.

Despite the late start through heavy rain, this match resulted in some excellent cricket. Largely through a great stand by Wilkins (26 n.o.) and Griffiths (21), the R.A.F. scored 74 runs. The Camelford bowlers were on top of their form, and took 5 wickets for 4 runs. This, with a fine partnership between Ellis (40) and Couch (26), contributed to Camelford winning by 59 runs with 4 wickets in hand. Camelford's score was 133 for 6. Wilson took 3 for 8, Hicks 3 for 16, Sprayson 2 for 23, and Ellis 1 for 14. In addition to Ellis and Couch, Camelford scorers were: Boundy 26 n.o., Freethy 15 n.o., Hooper 12, and Sprayson 11.

Brentor v. Launceston.

Launceston won this match at Brentor on Saturday by 32 runs.

Launceston—P. Amos 5, T. West 4, P. West 13, G. A. Reeve 4, J. Harris 4, L. Poore 5, M. Copp 16, N Emmett 16, M. Kelly 4, G. Philip 1, R. Bude n.o., 1, extras 4, total 77. (E. Redstone 5 for 33, J. Brimacombe 3 for 27, E. Doidge 2 for 16).

Brentor—E. Redstone 6, J. Lashbrook 1, E. Doidge 15, E. Dawe 0, J. Master 1, J. Brimacombe 0, P. Doidge 5, J. Plummer 1, P. Liddington 3, R. Batten n.o. 8, L. Hamling 2, extras 1, tota 145. (Reeve 2 for 16, P. West 2-5, Emmett 3-8, T. West 2-9, J. Harris 1-6.)

Callington v. Cornwall Police.

Cornwall Police reached a commanding position in their match at Callington, when they declared with nine wickets down for 147, but time destroyed their chance of victory. Stumps were drawn with six Callington batsmen out for 72.

Cornwall Police—A. Floyd 9, C. Kendall 33, F. Organ, 37, R. Hawkins 23, K. Julian 3, J. Williams 21, B. Craig 9, D. Tabb 2, J. Pankhurst 1, extras 9; total (9 wkts. dec.) 147. (R. Forbes 5 for 64, S. Forbes 2 for 37, F. Wallace 1 for 20, P. Skinnard 1 for 18).

Callington—F. Wallace 21, P. Screech 3, J. A. Blight 1, P. Skinnard 8, R. Forbes 14, S. Forbes 14 n.o., W. Lee 0, J. Heath 3 n.o., extras 8: total (6 wkts.) 72. (R. Hawkins 4 for 14, C. Kendall 1 for 10, J. Pankhurst 1 for 28).

BOWLS.

Callington Bowling Club opened their season on Saturday evening.

N.E. DIVISION WOMEN'S RINKS AT WADEBRIDGE.

FOOTBALL.

In confirming the recommendations made by its committee last February, Liskeard Association Football Club at its annual meeting reaffirmed the decision to stay in Cornish senior football. It was decided that the club should enter the Cornwall Senior League the Charity Cup, and the proposed Cornwall County Cup, while the reserve section would remain in the Cornwall Junior Cup and the Liskeard and District League.

Holsworthy, 6; Launceston, 2.

In a friendly match at Holsworthy, Thursday week, between Holsworthy and Launceston, the homesters proved themselves by far the better side in quickness on the ball and in finishing their approach work. Launceston failed badly in their finishing, and their forwards lacked shooting capabilities. Frank Vanstone led the home attack, and in the absence of C. Yelland, veteran Harold Prouse filled the left-back position, and S. Jennings came in at left, while behind them Blaney proved himself a very reliable goalkeeper. Holsworthy opened the scoring when Sleeman received on the right to find the net with a fine long shot and a few minutes afterwards the homesters went further ahead when Sleeman centred for Vanstone to head in. C. Eveleigh put them three up when he converted a corner with a splendid shot. Outstanding among the Launceston forwards was their right-winger, W. Mounce, and from his well-placed corner kick his inside right, F. Dyer, headed just wide. Before the interval the visitors reduced the arrears following a nice right-wing movement, Dyer netting from his winger's centre. Launceston showed improvement after the change-over, and for about twenty minutes were on top but their efforts were ruined through weak finishing. Jennings checked a Launceston attack, and brought the ball up to send Rogers away, the winger centreing for Vanstone to score. When Prouse miskicked, W. Mounce gained possession to score Launceston's second goal from close in. Vanstone made no mistake with a hard low shot and Sleeman went through to score the homester's sixth goal.—"Magpie."

Stokeclimsland, 2; Rest of League, 2

Stokeclimsland Minors, unbeaten champions of the Launceston and District Minor League for two consecutive seasons, maintained their proud record when they held a League XI to a draw of two goals each on the Launceston Town ground on Saturday. However what would have been a very attractive match was marred by heavy rain. Despite that, the first half produced some attractive football with the exchanges evenly shared. The teams crossed over drawing 1-1, Hutchings having scored for the champions and Goodman (Race Hill) for the Rest of the League. Owing to the bad weather, the second half saw a deterioration in the standard of soccer, but the game was always interesting and produced spasms of clever football. About a quarter of an hour after the restart, the Champions went into the lead when Hutchings again netted for them. The League were not to be denied and Goodman restored equality for them. With the score at two goals each, the final whistle ended the last game of the season, which has been a most successful one for minor football in the Launceston area.

The cup and miniature shields were presented to the Stoke captain and players by the Mayor-elect of Launceston (Coun. R. L. Hicks) who paid tribute to the donor of the trophy (the late Coun. F. Philip) and also congratulated Stokeclimsland on their well merited display which had secured for them the cup for the second season. He also congratulated Race Hill on being the runners-up and complimented all the teams who had played in the Minor League for the splendid football produced, but above all, for the sporting manner in which the games had been contested.

FAMILY TRADITION.

Mr. R. L. Hicks Becomes Launceston's Mayor.

IS YOUNGEST CIVIC HEAD IN TOWN'S MODERN HISTORY.

Launceston-born and Launceston-bred, Coun. Reuben Lewis Hicks followed a great family tradition when on Monday he became Mayor of the Borough for the coming year. A great-uncle (the late Mr. Edward Hicks) was Launceston's Mayor on no less than six occasions, an uncle (Mr. T. Hicks) is also on the Council, and, in the words of one of the proposers, in the long list of more than 300 mayors of the town, spanning a period of some 700 years, the name which occurs most often is that of Hicks. At 40, Coun. Hicks is the youngest mayor in the town's modern history.

In the traditional ceremonial, his election was proposed before a crowded audience at the Guildhall by Ald. W. E. Miller, who declared that Mayor-choosing day was the principal event in the civic life of the borough. It gave them the opportunity to come together and express their thanks to the retiring Mayor and Mayoress; it gave the opportunity of taking stock of what had been happening in municipal life; and it allowed them to elect, with all the dignity at their command, the new Mayor and Mayoress, who were going to be the principal citizens of the town in the year ahead.

Speaking of the present trend in local government, he said that in recent years, municipal authorities up and down the country had been robbed of a great deal of their powers, and several undertakings had passed out of the control of the democratically - elected representatives of the people and were now being governed and directed more by people who were appointed than by people who were elected. "This has been made the excuse by many people for failing to take interest in local government," he deplored. That was just the wrong attitude. "Surely it is a challenge to us to be more fully interested in the work of our Councils and local bodies, and do everything in our power to see that the organisations and duties left to us are carried out with the greatest possible efficiency, so that there can be no possible excuse for robbing us further of the powers which for generations have been in the hands of locally-elected representatives."

'SKILL AND ABILITY.'

To do that, he declared, they must have at their head people who were well-skilled in the art of local government, and in the new Mayor they had a man who by every means in his power had fitted himself for that high office. He was a man full of enthusiasm for a work which he knew was for the benefit of the people, and while he bore a name which had featured in the town's roll of mayors perhaps more than any other, it was for his own worth that they were electing him. He had brought wise counsel to the Council table, and was an excellent committee worker, during whose tenure of office as chairman of the General Purposes Committee the Coronation Park had been acquired for the town, and the responsibility for maintaining the Castle transferred to the Ministry of Works. In those negotiations he had shown a undoubted skill and ability.

Ald. Miller continued that Councillor Hicks was a keen sportsman, and was particularly keen on sport among the younger people. Through his help, junior football had been placed well on the map in the town. During his mayoralty, he would probably see progress on the new housing estate at Broad Park and also the development of the Scarne industrial site, as well as many other works. "Under your guidance, Mr. Hicks, this town can go still further forward," he concluded, amid applause.

The proposition was seconded by the retiring Deputy-Mayor (Coun. W. F. Hender), who spoke of the long and honourable history of Launceston's Mayors over the past 700 years. In electing Coun. Hicks they were choosing one as respected and as esteemed as any of his predecessors. "He has gained the respect, admiration and affection of all those who work with him on the Council," declared Coun. Hender. (Hear, hear.) "A man of deep humanitarian instincts, he has a great regard and love for all his fellow men, particularly those who are not so well off as they might be. He is a man of independent and balanced judgment, who brings a fresh approach to every problem which comes before the Council, and who judges each case on its merits."

Supporting, Coun. J. Moore said that Coun. Hicks had the backing of the young life of the community "and that speaks as to the man himself and as to his approach to present-day needs and understanding."

After his unanimous election, the new Mayor returned thanks for the very generous support he had received from all directions and the messages of goodwill received. Speaking for his wife and himself, he declared: "We will do our best during this coming year to return to you that loyalty to which you are justly entitled." To his Council colleagues he promised: "It will be my earnest endavour to see to it that the confidence you have reposed in me will not have been misplaced." To the retiring Mayor (Coun. T. P. Pulford) he commented: "In following you, I shall have very heavy going."

'A RIGHT TO BE PROUD.'

In an appeal for the full support of the public during the year, he maintained, "I shall be looking to every source for help. I shall need the assistance of the public, and to enable me to do my office full justice, that assistance must be forthcoming." For himself, he declared, he did not hide his pride at his election. "I have a right to be proud," he pointed out. "This borough is more than a town to me: it is my home and the home of my family. The honour bestowed upon me is not my honour; it is the honour of my parents, who were proud citizens and handed down to their children the value of good citizenship. They made sacrifices for their children, but they have not been in vain, and to-day I have the honour to represent them as the chief citizen of what to me is the stalwart of a great democracy."

Dealing with the absorption of local powers by the Central Government, the new Mayor said that the freedom which we enjoyed could only remain as long as the local councils existed, with their freely-elected representatives. It was important that the relationship of local authorities with the Central Government should be a partnership and not the relationship of master and servant. (Hear, hear.) Their Mayor-choosing ceremony that day was, he considered, an example of democracy at work. "A very ordinary person has been chosen to be the chief citizen of an important township," he said. "That indicates clearly to me that class barriers are non-existent. If they did exist, I should not be standing where I am standing to-day, and this is only possible in a real democracy where people live freely—they may live in groups, but the class distinction which we did know has disappeared."

His chief interest on the Council, he continued, was housing, and that was a problem as acute to-day as it was two years ago. "If the local authorities were in a position to do the job in their own manner, we may have been better situated in housing to-day than we are," he considered. "When it comes to building, only the local authority understands the peculiarities of the particular district." He warned of the dangers of too high rents, and of the new housing site at Roydon Road said that he hoped considerable progress would be made in the next twelve months. At the Scarne industrial site, too, progress was expected, and the development there would be of great value to the town and perhaps one day would help to relieve the rates.

"My job will be to look to the future and I shall look to see that things are done as we in Launceston would wish to have them done," he ended. "As an ordinary citizen, who has been so honoured, I shall see to it that during my term of office, I do those things I believe to be right and proper, according to my own conscience, and I hope the confidence placed in me will not be misplaced."

Coun. Hicks took the oaths of office as Mayor and magistrate, administered by the Town Clerk (Mr. S. L. Peter), and nominated Coun. S. D. H. Cavey (the youngest member of the Council) as his Deputy-Mayor and Rev. S. Oddie (Vicar of St. Thomas) as his chaplain. He reappointed Messrs. Edwin Olver and John Wotton as Town Serjeants and Mr. Preston Frost as mace-bearer.

'LAUNCESTON'S AMBASSADOR.'

Thanks to the retiring Mayor and Mayoress were proposed by Ald. R. Gregg, who said that Coun. Pulford, through his Tasmanian trip, had gained a unique title: "Launceston's ambassador. Not only Launceston but the whole of North Cornwall appreciated what he had done in cementing the great bonds of friendship between Britain and her overseas communities.

Seconding, Coun. W. G. Mooney said Mr. Pulford had not spared himself at all during a very full and active period of office.

Expressing his thanks, Coun. Pulford spoke of his gratitude for the support he and his wife had received from the whole borough. He thanked particularly the Town Clerk (Mr. S. L. Peter), his Chaplain (Rev. C. H. Tice), and the Deputy-Mayor and Mayoress (Coun. and Mrs. W. F. Hender). The highlights of his term of office, he said, were the visit of Princess Elizabeth, his own trip to Australia, and the magnificent response given in the Borough fete which raised in one day the town's quota for the "Thank You" fund, making it one of the only towns in Cornwall to reach its total. Congratulating and extending good wishes to the new Mayor, he caused laughter by commenting: "You and I have one thing in common—we are both working-men. That remark may be criticised, but it is true."

At a buffet lunch which followed in the Town Hall, the Loyal toast was proffered by the new Mayor. His health and that of the Mayoress was proposed by Mr. C. Raddall, oldest living freeman of the borough. He said that Coun. Hicks was entirely fitted for the position, and was a man outstanding because of his strength of character. He (Mr. Raddall) knew his great-uncle, Mr. Edward Hicks, well, and a better type of citizen did not exist. "I have equal confidence in you," he told the new civic head. Replying on behalf of his wife, Coun. Hicks said: "We will do our utmost to serve this borough during our term of office to the best of our ability. Whatever we do, we shall do in the interests of the town and according to our consciences."

Who Else Wants EXTRA EGGS

MR. C.K., of Caister, writes:— "From 6 birds, I average 27-30 eggs weekly. That is, after using Karswood Spice. Before using 'Karswood' I averaged 16 - 20 eggs weekly. It certainly is a wonder egg-producer—producing for me up to 10 eggs a week more! I advise every poultry-keeper to use it. They will not regret it." LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

WHAT IS ROTARIANISM?

From "Quo Vadis?" North Cornwall, May 18:

Sir,—Despite your most generous allocation of space to the Bude Rotary Club, the general public remain uninformed as to the real object of this association. Surely in these anxious times, new English Clubs are not formed merely to provide an excuse for a beanfeast? Yet if its object is beneficent, then why is membership exclusive and restricted?

More puzzling still, why does Rotarianism make no public answer to the most serious challenge of the Holy Office? In its recent decree it (a) forbids the clergy from joining the association of Rotary Clubs or to take part in its meetings, while (b) the laity are urged to observe the provisions of Canon 684, which refers to a warning against joining associations which are secret, condemned, seditious or which seek to withdraw themselves from the legitimate vigilance of the Church.

Curiously enough, Catholicism (this time the Anglican brand) is this week challenging Freemasonry as to the nature of religious instruction some members receive "within the barricaded secrecy of a rival teaching body!"

To-day the very preservation of our democratic way of life, threatened on all sides, externally and internally, surely demands that all its citizens and its component groups be democratic in spirit. Secrecy and exclusiveness are incompatible with that high aim.

"QUO VADIS?"

GRAVEST ROAD DANGER.

From Mr. Arthur Lockwood, Secretary, Western Temperance League, Bristol.

Sir,—If not already recorded, our statisticians are near to reporting one million road casualties since the end of the war. Almost 30,000 killed outright and 400,000 badly disabled.

The Lord Chief Justice, together with the Home Secretary and many other public men, roundly condemn many local justices for passing light sentences upon defendants proved guilty of being drunk whilst in charge of a car.

But I would urge that it is not the obviously drunken driver who is the gravest road danger. . . .

It was of the driver who had taken alcohol equal in quantity to that contained in a pint of beer, a double whisky, or a quarter bottle of light wine that the British Medical Association, through its committee on The Relation of Drink to Road Accidents, reported: "He will take risks with less caution than would otherwise be exercised. He will think he is driving better, but, in fact, his body works less efficiently."

The wise motorist abstains before and whilst he is driving, and surely the time is here when it ought to be made a culpable offence for the unwise to secure drink, or for any to serve them with it whilst in charge of a car.

ARTHUR LOCKWOOD.

'INTELLECTUAL DISHONESTY.'

From Mr. F. W. Harcourt-Munning, Prospective Labour Candidate, Tavistock Division, writing from 93, Kenmore Crescent, Bristol, May 17:

Dear Editor,—The letter from Mr. Baxter Hooper should be cut out and pasted up on the wall of every house belonging to the professional grumblers. It is a classic example of intellectual dishonesty; it will rejoice all those un-British folk who find overseas everything wonderful, whilst discrediting the country which supports them.

Recently I read the comment of a distinguished American. Of America he wrote: "Worldly capitalistic, a system wildly individualistic, at once dull and insecure. The battle is between man and man, group against group, trust against trust, but all fighting the individual. Why this savage indifference to reason?"

The paper dollar has printed on it, "In God we trust." It should also print on it, "The Devil take the hindermost." In the States that would read: for "Hindermost" read "Labour."

Two weeks ago I visited the mining valleys of South Wales. My last visits there were in 1927 and 1935. Instead of shut shops with broken fronts I found marble fronts packed with goods. Instead of soup queues I found busy shoppers. The housewives were beautifully dressed, and frequently had excellent fur coats, not shabby, ill-fitting, shoddy, as in earlier days. The children were not out with bare feet, but dressed like young princes. My heart was glad and I rejoiced! To pretend that our nation is other than healthy, prosperous and happy is to be guilty of intellectual dishonesty.

P. W. HARCOURT-MUNNING.

THE KING-MAKER IN CORNWALL

From "Lanje," Lanjeth, via St. Austell, May 18.

Sir,—The accounts of the borough of Launceston record rewards of 20d. and 16d. given to the servants of Hugh Courtenay when he rode to Okehampton with the Earl of Salisbury and Warwick, afterwards known as the King-Maker.

A frightful battle was fought at St. Albans on Shrove Tuesday, 1461, when Warwick was on the losing side, and the presumption is that he came to Cornwall immediately after his defeat.

Richard Neville, Earl of Salisbury, the King-Maker's father, was captured after the battle of Wakefield at the end of the year 1460, was taken to Pontefract, and there murdered.

Alice, his wife, was the sole daughter and heir of Thomas Montacute, son of the 3rd Earl of Salisbury (of that creation); he saw much service in France, and was killed at the famous siege of Orleans. The husband of Alice was created Earl of Salisbury in right of his marriage.

The Hugh Courtenay, mentioned above, was Sir Hugh of Boconnoc, M.P. for Cornwall in the time of Henry VI; he was killed at Tewkesbury in 1471. He married Margaret Carmynowe, widow of William Botreaux.

TINTAGEL COMPLAINT.

From Mr. Brian Darbyshire, 12, Cote Lea Park, Westbury-on-Trym, Bristol, May 21:

Sir,—On behalf of the custodians of the Waterfall in the Valley, to which Mr. Ballache presumably referred in his letter of 15th May, I wish to be allowed to reply.

Such paint-marks as these to which Mr Ballache objects have been used for generations in the Alps to mark paths, and the system was adopted in the Valley as numerous visitors have complained of losing their way to the Waterfall, and to save annoyance to farmers and others through straying over crops and damaging walls and fences.

Mr. Ballache would be astonished to know the large number of grateful visitors who applaud the system which was instituted a year ago. No complaint other than Mr. Ballache's has been heard, and in view of the warm approval by visitors, it appears that the greatest good is being done for the benefit of the greatest number.

The suggestion that the marks "are inflicted on the community for the purpose of furthering the sale of bottles of lemonade" is quite incorrect, and conveys the impression that the author might have been the proprietor of a stall serving fizzy drinks who feared that his trade might be damaged by distant competition.

BRIAN DARBYSHIRE.

DON'T SELL CATS.

From Mr. E. Keith Robinson, Secretary, Our Dumb Friends' League, May 21:

Sir,—It has come to the knowledge of Our Dumb Friends' League that an Italian is approaching breeders and others in this country, with a view to purchasing cats and kittens. These animals are to be killed for their skins. May I ask all concerned not to sell their animals?

E. KEITH ROBINSON.

RAIN FAILED TO SPOIL SHOW.

Linkinhorne Event.

ATTENDANCE & ENTRIES HIGH; CATTLE CLASSES OUTSTANDING

Four-and-a-half hours of almost continuous heavy rain in the afternoon failed to break the spirit or to prevent the success of Linkinhorne's 1951 Agricultural Show and Gymkhana, held in Mr. J. H. Strout's field, Pengelly Farm, on Saturday. It was estimated that over 1,000 people attended—a greater total than last year, when the weather was perfect.

The number of entries exceeded last year's by about 30, despite the poor showing in some horse classes. There were no exhibits in the local agricultural horse section, but this was explained by the fact that the heavy horses have been used instead of tractors during the recent bad weather and are not up to show standard. One good class was that of hunter brood mares and their foals, which produced five entries of high standard.

Considering the atrocious winter, cattle were of particularly good quality, and classes were well stocked. The cup, given by Mr. W. L. Daniel for the best exhibit in the local cattle classes, was won by Mr. J. H. Strout, who was also successful in 1949. It was won last year by Mr. L. J. Bailey. Specials for the best Devon and also the best animal in the horse and cattle classes were won by C. Brent and Son with their famed Devon bull, "Holwell Supreme 2nd," championship winner at the Devon County Show this year. Mr. S. R. Lancaster, of Launceston, gained a special for the best South Devon in the Show. Attested, Supervised and T.T. cattle were exhibited for the first time in the Show's existence.

Pig and sheep classes were well up on last year's total, gilt class entries being outstandingly high.

The heavy rain and consequently slippery turf did not entirely spoil the standard of horsemanship in the Gymkhana section. Young John le Marquand, of Saltash, gave a great display of riding in winning the children's polo bending event and M. Congdon, of Tideford, held the lead for the whole four lengths of the first express letter race (14 h.h. and under) to come in an easy first. The jumpers were handicapped by the weather and the only clear rounds went to Mr. B. le Marquand [illegible] championship [illegible] was won by Mr. N. Wilton, St. Cleer.

VERY MUCH ALIVE.

The event was opened by Com. A. M. Williams, of Launceston, who said that it was obvious that the little show was very much alive. He congratulated the President, committee and exhibitors on the high standard they had achieved, both in organisation and exhibits. In explaining the importance of small agricultural shows, Com. Williams referred to the men of the British Forces overseas who were "showing the world and giving us inspiration and leadership." Small shows, he stated, were giving agriculturists these same two qualities—inspiration and leadership. Com. Williams was introduced by the President (Mr. D. E. Horrell). A vote of thanks was proposed by Mr. D. Kittow and Capt. A. N. Pilling seconded.

One highlight of the day was a demonstration by Mr. D. J. Stone, of Llangenny, Wales, and his five international sheep dogs. These clever animals, instructed by varying pitches of whistles from their master controlled a small flock of wild sheep in a manner which can only be described as uncanny. Other exhibitions were given by Messrs. A. Palmer (Horrabridge), E. Duke (Tavistock), R. R. Friend (Lydford) and their sheepdogs.

The East Cornwall Hounds were paraded under their master and huntsmen.

After the show a dance was held in the Rilla Mill Institute to the music of the Two Bridges Hotel Novelty Dance Orchestra. The organiser was Mrs. A. H. Harrison.

Judges were: Agricultural horses, Mr. H. Mill, Whitstone, Holsworthy; hunters and hacks, Mr. H. E. Bastard, Wadebridge; Capt. R. Horn, Bicton Manor, Pensilva; Devon cattle, Mr. R. J. Ching, Merton, Okehampton; South Devon cattle, Mr. G. H. Eustice, Bezzurell Gwinear; dairy cattle, Mr. E. Cross, Lamellion, Liskeard; sheep, Mr. T. Hicks, Moorview, North Hill, Mr. E. H. Barons, Kingsbridge, South Devon; pigs, Mr. J. R. Nicholls, Dobwalls, Mr. H. Vanstone, Launceston; dogs, Mr. and Mrs. Salter, Holywell, Liskeard; gymkhana, Messrs. H. E. Bastard, J. R. Nicholls, Capt. P. N. Coombe. Children's classes, Mrs. J. Dingley and Mr. A. Carter.

Officials: Chairman, C. Brent; vice-chairman, E. Hoare; treasurer, F. M. Bartlett; general secretary, T. A. Doney, Upton Cross, Liskeard; assistant general secretary, Miss V. I. Crapp; gymkhana secretary, H. H. Male; director of field (show), J. H. Strout; assistant director of field (show), E. J. Tucker; director of field (gymkhana), P. Henwood; assistant director of field (gymkhana), T. H. Parnell; starter, Mr. W. B. Knowles; hon. vet. surgeon, Mr. C. Parsons.

Lunch for the judges was served by Mesdames D. Kittow and H. H. Male. Tea conveners were Mesdames C. Brent and D. Horrell and helpers were: Mesdames P. Henwood, R. Gubbin, T. Parnell, B. Martin, Kempson, E. Davy, Worden, L. Pascoe, Young, A. Arnold, Fynn, Tapper, W. Davy, W. H. Daniel, H. Jenkin, M. Fuge, N. Rich, J. Mitchell. Misses Hicks, Gubbin, Daniel, J. Male, and Rich.

SIR H. ROPER SEEKS TALKS ON CORNISH MINING.

Acting on behalf of the Cornish Members generally, Sir Harold Roper, M.P. for North Cornwall, is asking the Government to receive a deputation from the county's mining interests to discuss a long-term policy for mineral development in Cornwall. Among the points to be discussed will be the question of changes required in taxation to make mining a proposition of interest to private enterprise. Among those who will make up the deputation, if the Government agrees to receive it, will be Mr. F. L. Caunter (Liskeard).

TAVISTOCK M.P.'s 'AT HOME.'

One hundred and seventy officers of the Tavistock Division Conservative and Unionist Association attended an "At home" given by Mr. Henry Studholme, M.P. for the division, and Mrs. Studholme, at Wembury House, Wembury, on Saturday.

PRINTED PAPER POST RATE UP.

The Postmaster-General announces that on and from Friday, June 1, next, the minimum postage for inland printed papers will be increased to 1½d.

This will cover a packet weighing up to 4oz. Thereafter the rate will be ½d. for each additional 2oz. up to the maximum of 2lb.

The increased rate has been arranged so that the ordinary postage on a printed paper packet weighing more than 2oz. will not be increased.

EX-BRITISH LEGION PRESIDENT DIES.

Maj.-Gen. Sir Frederick Maurice, [illegible] years until his retirement in [illegible] president of the British Legion, [illegible] Cambridge on Saturday at the age of 80.

The County Agricultural Executive Committee's plans for a full-scale war on the rabbit pest were announced at a meeting of St. Germans Farmers' Union.

For Sunday Afternoon.

The All-Embracing Church.

In a sermon preached by the Archbishop of Canterbury in Canterbury Cathedral he spoke of the particular place of the Anglican Communion within "The Church". He recalled that he had the opportunity recently of seeing members of the Anglican Communion in all the States of Australia, in every chief city of New Zealand, and recently in West Africa, where he met representatives of the African Church from five dioceses. Language had offered no bar, for he recalled that he had worshipped in the Maori tongue and in a tribal language of the protectorate of Sierra Leone as well as in English. But it was always in the words and in the spirit of the Book of Common Prayer which is our common possession and the expression of our belief and worship.

The Archbishop continued:—"There are no specifically Anglican doctrines. We hold as of the faith only that which evidently appears as such in the Scriptures and the Creeds. But there is a specifically Anglican temper of mind and heart which our history has fashioned in us. Because of our security in the Catholic Faith, we can hold out hands of understanding to Churches of every kind. Because of it, we are not afraid that association with others will compromise our own good name. It is part of our tradition that we are not self-conscious, or unduly Church-conscious, but conscious chiefly of the duty of the Church to be seeking and proclaiming Our Saviour Jesus Christ in sincerity of heart and in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit. It is this Anglican temper of mind and spirit that we are called upon, as I think, especially at this time to maintain."

In conclusion he said:—"By our British history and experience there is a particular call to the British Nation and Commonwealth to be guardians and exemplars of a true freedom, in the sphere of world politics and social affairs. By our Church history and experience there is a particular call to the Church of England and to the Anglican Communion in all parts of the world to fulfil a similar task in the field of Christian truth and witness—presenting the truth as it is made known to us in Christ, and as it is tested and tried by the reverent, honest and free use of Scripture and history and every daily evidence of God's revelation of Himself to man."

THE PERSIAN OIL QUESTION.

MR. DINGLE FOOT AT LAUNCESTON.

Speaking at a social gathering in the Liberal Club, Launceston, on Monday, Mr. Dingle Foot, prospective Liberal candidate for North Cornwall, said that one cause of the quarrel between Liberals and members of the other two parties was the way in which both the other parties concentrated on trivial and minor issues. How utterly unimportant seemed most of the things that were discussed at the last election when compared with what had happened since. To-day they were faced with a matter which, although it arose thousands of miles away, was of the utmost importance to every one of them, namely the threat by the Persian Government to take over the Anglo-Iranian oilfields. It was absurd to speak, as someone did over the radio last week, as if it was simply a matter of their own selfish imperial interests. If they were to lose the output of the Persian oilfields, it would be the greatest defeat for the free world and the greatest victory for Communism that had occurred since 1945. Maybe that was not what the Persians themselves intended, but that would be the result.

Of course, the Persians had as much right to nationalise their industries as we had. But that was not the point, said Mr. Foot. They entered into contract with the Anglo-Iranian Company and a Government had no more right to break its contract than had an individual.

In this situation, what should they do? asked the speaker. In the first place, they should certainly negotiate and seek to reach an agreement acceptable to both sides. If that failed, they should offer to submit the whole dispute to the International Court or to impartial arbitration. But even if that was refused, they would be justified in taking any steps that might be in their power to protect their lawful interests and to make sure that that vital source of supply was not lost to the free world.

'SEES HIMSELF AS THE SOCIALIST LEADER.'

TAVISTOCK M.P.'S COMMENT ON MR. ANEURIN BEVAN.

"I thing Mr. Bevan's action is a calculated long-term move on his part. He sees himself as the leader of the Socialist Party and hopes one day he will come back as Prime Minister," declared Mr. Henry Studholme, M.P. for Tavistock Division, speaking at Plympton on Friday.

He was discussing the former Minister's breakaway from the Government, and he said that Mr. Bevan was now trying to prove that the reason for his action was a patriotic one, and also that he had done what he did to impress America that what this country needed was more raw materials. "I don't believe that anyone who has watched his manoeuvres will believe that is the reason," commented Mr. Studholme. America has now completed stockpiling and is prepared to allow this country and Western Europe a greater share of essential commodities."

He added that Socialism had failed, and that the group (Bevan, Wilson, Michael Foot and Miss Jennie Lee) which had broken away realised they were strong enough to bring down the Government. They made speeches which made it appear that that was their intention, yet they voted with the Government because they knew that if they did not and there was a General Election, the Conservatives would get in.

OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

LAUNCESTON RURAL DISTRICT COUNCIL.

VILLAGES OF STOKECLIMSLAND AND VENTERDON.

SEWERAGE AND SEWAGE DISPOSAL.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a Sewerage and Sewage Disposal Scheme for the Villages of Stokeclimsland and Venterdon has been prepared by the Council and submitted to the Minister of Local Government and Planning for approval and that application has been made to the Minister for sanction to raise a loan of £13,600 in respect of the estimated cost of the work.

The proposal will involve the Construction of a Sewage Disposal Works on the land forming part of 820 O.S. Map, Cornwall Sheet, No. XXIII.14 Second Edition 1906. Plans showing the scheme in outline may be inspected by any person, free of charge, at the Offices of the Council's Engineer and Surveyor, Mr. A. M. A. Bowrey, at the undermentioned address during the usual office hours.

Any objection to the proposal should be made, in writing, to me at the undermentioned address within 21 days of the date of the first publication of this Notice.

JOE PHILP,
Clerk of the Council.

CORNISH AND DEVON POST & WEEKLY NEWS.

FRIDAY, May 25, 1951.

U.S. AND US.

Anti-Americanism is not confined to the dissident Left Wing faction of the Labour Party that now forms also a coterie of admirers for Mr. Aneurin Bevan.

There is a great deal of loose talk about Britain being dragged along behind policies formulated in Washington. There is a resentment about our dependance on American assistance, though this has been greatly dissipated now that Marshall Aid has ceased. Then there is the Communist and fellow travellers' line about the urge for war which they assert is characteristic of the United States.

What is the answer to all this? Quite simply that whatever political and diplomatical differences may arise between the two countries it is still vital to each of them that they enjoy the full friendship and co-operation of the other. There are statesmen on both sides of the Atlantic who realise this, but their desire to translate their attitude into unity over policies and strong mutual defences are often bedevilled by political and other groups.

In the United States, Mr. Acheson knows only too well, and so does President Truman, how difficult such people can make it for the bonds of unity to be firmly forged. Here Mr. Attlee heads a Party a number of whose members are constantly and vociferously condemning America and urging that Britain should be more independent. If we did try to limit our association with America what would be the likely result? The isolationists there would have a field day. They would have stronger reasons than ever before for urging America to get out of Europe. And if that happened we would face grave dangers.

The truth is that Britain, France and the other free continental countries cannot re-arm and re-build economically unless America is a firm partner in both spheres. One of the most promising aspects of post-war diplomacy has been that the U.S. has been brought so deeply into the European scene. Her commitments are now world-wide. They are intimately linked with our own. American military strength and vast industrial potential now underwrite the determination of the free nations to remain free. As Mr. Churchill said at Glasgow recently: "The core and life-thrust of the World Alliance of Free Peoples is, of course, the English-speaking world, united by language, literature, history and tradition." It is true and that is why the anti-American elements in this country do such disservice to the whole cause of peace, as well as to the direct interests of Britain. We must have more, not less, co-operation between our two peoples.

ST. GILES MAY FAIR.

SUCCESS IN SPITE OF WEATHER.

A May Fair was held on the grounds of the Vicarage at St. Giles on Saturday. Unfortunately the rain fell just before the time for opening and continued until after tea. This made havoc of the plans and made it necessary for tea to be served early, during which Mrs. Fulford (Mayoress of Launceston) opened the fete.

In introducing Mrs. Fulford the Vicar (Rev. C. Rex Williams) spoke of the pleasure it gave them to welcome her to the parish. He went on to say how happy he was to work among the people of St. Giles who had worked hard and given generously to their Church. He welcomed the large number of Methodists present and referred to the very cordial relations which existed between St. Giles Church and the Methodist Church.

Mrs. Fulford, in performing the opening, said how pleased she was to have the opportunity of visiting the country churches and although it was such a wet afternoon she hoped that their effort would prove a financial success. She then declared the fete open. She was afterwards presented with a bouquet of flowers by Miss Kathryn Mary Stanbury.

Mr. Wm. Stanbury (People's Warden) in proposing a vote of thanks to Mrs. Fulford referred to the fact that this was her last public duty as Mayoress of Launceston, and said how valued had been her work and that of her husband for the community during the past two years. He associated himself with the remarks of the Vicar in welcoming the members of the Methodist Church. Mr. F. T. Moore (vicar's warden) seconded the vote of thanks.

The Fair was very successful, considering the weather. The pound stall, under Mrs. Stanbury's direction made a profitable return. Mrs. Lancaster's jumble sale made a fair profit, but the weather was unkind to the goods on view. Mrs. Palmer fared little better with the fancy stall. Among the side shows the skittling for the calf and throwing darts for the pig created considerable interest. Mr. Howard's rifle shooting was also a great attraction. There were other sideshows.

Winners were as follows: Skittling for calf, Mr. Glanville; darts for the pig, Mr. A. Rowland, Virginstow; rifle shooting, 1, Mr. A. Marsh; 2, Mr. J. Richards; 3, Mr. F. Richards. "Wot no Fowl" was won by Mr. Glanville. Judging the weight of pig was shared by four competitors. Judging weight of fowl was won by Miss J. Patt. The 5s. piece treasure hunt was won by Master R. Thorne. Other competitions were won by Mrs. T. Ellacott and Mr Donald Lancaster.

The children of the Sunday School were in charge of a bran tub, which was quickly emptied and the children also sold buttonholes and bunches of flowers.

The calf was auctioned by Rev. Williams and purchased by Mr. J. Bate. The public tea was in charge of Mrs. F. Moore, assisted by Mrs. White Virginstow. Tea pourers were Mrs. E. J. Bassett (Virginstow), Mrs. Pearce (Tower Hill), and Mrs. R. Brock (Broadwood), assisted by Mrs. T. Richard, Misses M. Ellacott and Barriball. Mr. Crowther, of Plymouth, was the door steward for the tea. Owing to the illness of Mrs. Bailey the heating of the water was done by Mrs. F. Hodge and Miss B. Bailey. In the evening there was a concert by local artistes in the Church Room, organised by Mrs. C. R. Williams. Taking part were: Duets, Mrs. J. Crocker and Mrs. Helson, Misses M. and C. Crocker; solos, Mrs. J. Crocker, Miss M. Crocker, Mr. J. Howard; piano solos, Miss Barriball, Miss J. Williams, and Miss W. Glanville; recitation, Miss M. Crocker; cornet solos, Mr. Glanville; piano duets, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Barriball, Master P. Glanville and Miss J. Glanville.

The Minister of Food has made an order raising the maximum retail prices of roasted coffee, coffee mixture, and raw coffee.

COUNCIL MAY BUY WATER COMPANY.

Kelly Bray Project.

LAUNCESTON R.D.C. AGREE TO ENTER NEGOTIATONS.

Launceston Rural Council, at their meeting on Tuesday, decided to negotiate for the purchase of the privately-owned Kelly Bray Water Company, with a view to utilising the Company's source at Kit Hill to supply Stokeclimsland and area. A figure of £2,000 was mentioned, but the project is subject to Ministry approval.

The Council also agreed that when the Company was acquired, its pipelines in the St. Germans Rural Council's area should be offered to that authority at a valuation price to be established by an independent expert.

Reporting on the matter, the Clerk (Mr. J. Philp) said that representatives of the Launceston and St. Germans Councils had met at Saltash and discussed the position. As a result, a joint offer of £1,500 was made to the Company, Launceston to pay £900 and St. Germans £600. St. Germans stated that they were more interested in the pipe-line than in the water itself. That offer was, however, turned down by the Company, who then wished to enter into negotiations with the Launceston Council. A meeting with them was arranged, and the outcome was the recommendation which had been adopted.

Mr. Philp added that there had been a protest from the St. Germans Council at this action, who wished to meet the Launceston representatives again, but Mr. K. J. Uglow, chairman of the Water Committee, said that St. Germans had stated very plainly that all they needed was the pipe-line in their area. "That we are prepared to offer them at valuation. What could be fairer than that?" he asked.

Coun. E. C. Chudleigh said there was no reason why they should not meet the St. Germans representatives—if they would come to Launceston. This was agreed.

At the suggestion of the Chairman (Mr. C. L. Symons), it was agreed to request the South-East Cornwall Water Board for a supply of water from their mains nearby to provide the village of North Hill with a piped supply. Mr. Symons pointed out that they were in a position to invite tenders for the North Hill sewerage scheme, but properties connected would have no water, only drainage.

It was reported that agreement had been reached with the owners of the source for the South Petherwin water scheme, and also that negotiations were being completed with the owner of the source for Langore and Egloskerry. The Lewannick and Downgate scheme had been approved in principle by the County Council, and sanction was given to proceed with the Trebullett sewerage scheme at a cost of £935. At the request of the Ministry it was agreed to provide details of a possible piped-water for Altarnun and Five Lanes to the Ministry. It had already been agreed that a bore hole for water should be sunk at Fives Lanes. A similar bore is to be sunk at Bolventor.

SALARY INCREASES.

The Clerk reported that under increases approved by the Joint Industrial Council, the salaries of certain of the Council's officers would be raised by approximately £40 each per year, the total annual increase involved being about £200. The Vice-chairman (Mr. G. Sandercock) said it seemed that everyone was studied—except the ratepayers. He added that they seemed one day to appoint an official at £400 a year—and there were plenty of applicants—and the next day his salary would be £500 and they could do nothing about it.

There was a discussion on how economies could be effected, possibly by a reduction in staff or the engagement of younger people, but no action was taken along this line. On the motion of Coun. R. F. A. Heard, it was agreed that an increase similar to the others should be granted to Miss E. Thomas, who had not had a rise during the six years she had been with the Council and who would not normally come for an increase until next year.

It was agreed to ask the authorities for telephone kiosks to be erected at Bowithick, Higherland (Stokeclimsland), Trecrogo, Tregada, Five Lanes and Treburley.

As a sequel to representations by the Council, the County Council notified that they were recommending the Ministry of Transport to place "Halt" signs at the Congdon Shop cross-roads.

The chairman suggested that the Council should adopt a definite scheme, points or otherwise, for the allocation of Council houses, and there was a lengthy discussion on the subject and on the question of existing tenants changing houses. It was eventually agreed that each case should be considered on its merits, and that vacant houses should continue to be advertised.

From Sir Harold Roper, M.P., and the Ministry of Education, the Council learned that a request had been issued to the Local Education Authority to deal urgently with the unsatisfactory sanitary conditions at South Petherwin V.P. School, about which the Council had complained.

It was the Council's annual meeting, and Mr. Symons was re-elected chairman and Mr. Sandercock vice-chairman.

NORTH HILL.

The anniversary services of the Methodist Church Sunday School were held on Sunday and Monday. The preacher at all the services on Sunday was Rev. B. Bowyer, of Coad's Green. There was a public tea on Monday, after which a meeting was held in the chapel. The speaker was Mr. Basil Mitchell, of Liskeard, the chair being taken by Mr. Harold Rundle, of Milton Abbot. Special hymns were sung. Misses Jean Percy and Ruth Williams sang a duet. Hymns were also sung separately by senior and junior members of the Sunday School. Mr. A. J. Williams was the organist. Misses June Turner, Jean Orchard, Mavis Budge and Betty Tucker presided at the tea. Other helpers were Mesdames W. Davey, A. Burden, A. J. Williams, W. Pridham and C. Sandercock. The report was read by Miss B. Tucker (secretary).

EGLOSKERRY.

Sunday services at the Parish Church; 11 a.m. Matins, Mr. Harper; 6.30 p.m., Evensong, Rev. S. T. Craddock, North Petherwin.

The Sunday School anniversary services at the Methodist Church were held on Sunday week. The preacher was Pastor W. E. Watkins. Continued on Wednesday, there was a faith tea. Serving were: Misses Mary Symons, Margaret Symons, Christine Stevens and Grace Stevens and cutting-up were Mrs. C. Barriball and Mrs. T. Moore. The speaker at the evening service was Rev. E. A. Ball, and the chairman, Mr. J. Cottrell of Launceston. The Sunday School report was given by the Secretary (Miss Margaret Symons). There was special singing by the children and choir at all services. A duet was sung by Misses Rita Moore and Margaret Symons. The organist at all services was Miss Mary Symons. Proceeds were for Sunday School funds.

MILTON ABBOT.

The last meeting for the season of the Mothers' Union was held at the Vicarage on Wednesday week. Preb. F. C. Green (Vicar) gave an interesting address. Mrs. S. Dawe was the pianist and Mrs. Green and helpers served refreshments. Miss Betty Willcocks was in charge of the nursery.

CHILDREN'S VISIT TO WINDSOR.

600 ENJOY FULL PROGRAMME.

Between 550 and 600 children of the district boarded the special train on the educational trip to the Royal Borough of Windsor last Friday. Contingents were picked up from schools at Warbstow, Otterham, Egloskerry, Hatherleigh, Holsworthy, Okehampton and Exeter, as well as a party of nearly 170 children from Launceston. The station was thronged with parents to give the young passengers and their teachers a good send-off, and an eye-witness on the train from Launceston reports several pasties (the children took their own lunches to eat on the train) eaten before the train arrived at Tower Hill.

A running buffet was maintained both on the outward and return journeys, and a roaring trade was maintained in crisps, ice-cream, lemonade, chocolate cakes, tea and coffee. The weather proved excellent and the trip was made in sunshine. Interest began to warm up at the sight of the spire of Salisbury Cahedral and the many electric train services in the vicinity of London. Windsor was reached at 1 p.m., when the party was immediately conducted (marching in pairs, the nine-year-olds to the fore) to the Castle. The children visited St. George's Chapel (where only the previous week H.R.H. the King of Denmark was installed Knight of the Garter), and climbed the Round Tower (215 feet above the Thames) for its magnificent view of the river and Windsor Great Park. Later, they toured the Royal Apartments, greatly admiring its splendid furnishings, especially in the Throne Room, the priceless collection of paintings, and the armoury.

At 3.30 the party boarded three river steamers for the trip to Runnymede (Magna Carta) Island. Greatly admired: the traffic on the river, the wild life of Windsor Great Park, and the magnificent vista of Eton College. Passing through the various locks proved an additional thrill.

Tea was taken on the boat, and the party returned to the station shortly before 6.30 p.m., the train leaving for Cornwall at 6.45 p.m. for the six-hour return journey. Packed suppers were served to the children on the train, and the Launceston party arrived home shortly before 1 a.m. Friday morning to the strains of "My bonny lies over the ocean."

High spot of the trip: undoubtedly the sight of the changing of the Castle Guard (the Grenadiers) in full-dress uniform, scarlet coats and bearskins.

The excursion was organised by British Railways, with the full co-operation of the various headmasters and teaching staffs. Half term holiday was taken the following Monday to allow the children to recover fully from their long journey. Verdict of one small and very train-grubby schoolboy at the end of the trip: "Super! How soon's the next, please?"

In a letter to the Editor, Mr. W. R. Bennett, "Burnside," Dunheved Road, Launceston says:

Parents of the children who went on the trip to Windsor last week owe a great debt of gratitude to the organisers and especially those school teachers who accompanied the children. Whilst being alive to the many administrative difficulties, may we hope that further efforts will be made to enable the children to see more places of historical interest. Perhaps no better expression of gratitude can be given than that of the boys who on being asked what sort of time they had said "It was smashing."

TO OUR READERS.

Selling Price Increase to 3d. Next Week.

Owing to the staggering increases in the price of newsprint (our raw material) as well as to the ever-increasing costs of production, wages, etc., the "Cornish and Devon Post" is compelled to fall into line with other newspapers by raising its selling price.

Other Cornish papers went up to 3d. many months ago, and one at least two years ago, so that the "Post" is the last in the county to take this step, which has become universal almost all over the country. It has been predicted that if the steep rise in costs continues some papers will have to go up to 4d. to meet their liabilities, and this has already taken place in at least one town in Yorkshire.

Meanwhile, although we are strictly rationed as to the amount of newsprint we can use, we shall continue to give our readers the benefit of our wide organisation for a complete local news service, and to supply as far as possible all demands for copies.

Our agents are advised that the new selling price will take effect as from our issue of June 2nd next.

LIFTON DOWN.

The anniversary services of Lifton Down Methodist Sunday School were held on Sunday and Monday. Sunday's preacher was Mr. David Foot Nash (Plymouth) to large congregations both afternoon and evening. On Monday a public tea was well patronised, and in the evening a public meeting was held, presided over by Mr. R. D. Broad (Treburley), Rev. E. A. Ball gave an address to the children. Special hymns were sung by the children, who were trained by Mr. and Mrs. Martin (Broadlands). The secretary's report was given by Mr. R. G. Chapman (Bamham), who said although the Sunday School at present was rather small there were better hopes for the future. The offertories at the services amounted to over £10, and a vote of thanks was proposed by Mr. R. G. Chapman to all helpers.

COMPLAINT REFUTED.

'Labour Exchange is Consulted By Us.'

LAUNCESTON TOWN CLERK ANSWERS TRADES COUNCIL.

Refutation of the allegation that the Council did not consult the local Labour Exchange when selecting poll clerks for municipal elections was made by the Town Clerk (Mr. S. L. Peter) at Wednesday's meeting of Launceston Town Council. The allegation was made at last month's meeting of the Trades Council by Mr. S. J. Spriddell, after a claim that the Labour Exchange had been bye-passed in the selection of enumerators for the recent national census.

Mr. Peter declared that for years he had taken great care to approach the Ministry of Labour on the appointment of polling clerks for municipal elections and after reading the statement in the Press, he wrote to the Ministry asking for confirmation that he had done so. He read the reply, signed by Mr. P. G. Balsdon, local manager, confirming that it is the practice of the Council to apply to his office for names suitable for appointment as poll clerks when Borough elections are held.

Mr. Peter added that during the last and in previous elections they had in fact used people from the Labour Exchange.

The Mayor (Coun. R. L. Hicks): "It is very wrong for any organisation to make use of the Press for what they only consider to be facts. They seem quite prepared to accept hearsay."

Coun. W. P. Hender: "I hope the person who made this irresponsible statement will have the grace to apologise."

Ald. W. E. Miller said the position was getting out of hand. "I resent very much this interference by outside bodies," he asserted. "We have a competent official who has done the job very well."

From the Ministry of Transport, the Council learned that it was hoped to start work next month on the improvement pressed for at Scarne Cross, said to be a danger trap, especially for children. The Ministry also notified that it was hoped to make an early start on the demolition of the farm buildings on the pavement in Clampitts Road. On the subject of the revised access to the Pennygillam temporary housing estate, the Ministry replied that they saw no logical reason for departing from their decision that a new access must be provided. This would entail the closing of the present entrance near the corner, and the provision of another one further up the Bodmin road at a cost of about £400.

Ald. Miller suggested that the matter should be referred to the local M.P. "We are being placed in a position which is contrary to the views of the people on the spot," he protested.

REFERRED TO M.P.

Ald. R. Gregg supported this view, and it was agreed to inform Sir Harold Roper, M.P. of the position.

Although the Ministry of Transport offered a 50 per cent. grant of any expenditure incurred the Council reaffirmed a previous decision not to re-form the local Road Safety Committee.

The Chamber of Trade asked the Council's advice as to a protest concerning the fact that Launceston no longer had a Police superintendent. The Council, which had earlier made representations against the Superintendent's removal, decided that they could not advise on any further action.

When the Council approved the sale of tyres in the refuse dump and floating in the water at the Slate Quarry, Coun. Hender said it should be made clear that these items had been legitimately disposed of, for there were tales in the town that tyres and other materials were being removed from the dump in an unauthorised manner. "They have in fact been disposed of at a satisfactory price—twice as much as we thought we might get," he said.

Coun. Mrs. R. H. Keast raised the question of the bad surface of the Guildhall car park, which she said was very dangerous, and she was told that it would soon be dealt with. She also asked about the pavements in Dunheved Road, and Ald. Gregg, chairman of the Highways Committee, said the Council had spent a lot of money and time on Dunheved Road, and he did not think it right that their limited labour force should go back there when in demand in other directions. The matter was, however, receiving attention.

Parking of tractors, big vans and lorries in Dunheved Road led Ald. S. J. Fitze to ask if the Council, when agreeing to parking space there, had limited it to cars only. Ald. Gregg replied that that point had never been discussed, and the Town Clerk added that Dunheved Road was only intended as a temporary car park pending completion of the Cattle Market park and other facilities. He did not see how they could enforce a bye-law that only cars should be parked there unless they put a man on it all the time.

On the same general question of parking, Coun. T. Hicks mentioned obstruction caused by cars parking in Castle Dyke, and the Deputy-Mayor (Coun. S. D. H. Cavey) said that all the trouble was linked up with the lack of car parks in the town. He understood a sub-committee had been appointed to go into the matter, but they had not met yet.

Ald. Miller replied that the sub-committee was waiting for the County Planning Officer to visit the town and indicate suitable sites for car parks.

NEWPORT CAR PARK.

Coun. Hender spoke of parking congestion in Newport Square and in Westbridge Road, and suggested that the former playground behind the Roundhouse could be converted cheaply into a car park by merely knocking down the wall on the Westbridge Road side.

This and the other suggestions were referred to the committee.

The Council sealed a contract with Messrs. J. Kerswill and Sons, Ltd., for the erection of 13 more houses at Trecarrell Estate at a price of £16,433; a contract with Messrs. W. G. Northcott and Co., Ltd., for site works on the Roydon Road housing estate at a price of £5,648; and the conveyance with Mr. T. P. Fulford for the purchase of the site at Broad Park, Roydon Road.

The Ministry of Local Government had refused permission for the roadway at Broad Park to be of concrete, although the Council claimed this would be £180 cheaper than the tarmacadam specified, and despite this being pointed out, they reaffirmed their decision.

It was reported that the vacant Council house at 2, Western Terrace had been allocated to Mr. J. S. Nute, of Higher Larrick, Lezant, and that Mr. E. G. Abbott, of 126, Hurdon Way, had turned down the tenancy of the house offered to him at Trecarrell. The latter house was re-allocated to Mr. W. P. Matthews, 113, Hurdon Way.

The Surveyor (Mr. W. K. Pickup) reported that the rest garden at Newport was now open to the public.

Consideration was given to the cleaning of the waste piece of ground between the Coronation Park and Windmill, particularly with regard to the removal of stones, and it was decided to ask the Race Hill and Priory Park Minor Football Clubs if they would provide voluntary labour to clear these stones. If they do so, the Council will waive the season's rent in respect of the football pitch at the Coronation Park.

It was stated that the Education Authority had agreed to purchase season tickets for the swimming pool at 5s. each for school swimming instruction during the coming season, but that they requested a reduction in the charge of 3s. an hour for the hire of the tennis courts by Horwell Grammar School. The Council decided that in view of the commitment for the repair of the courts and the heavy cost of maintenance, they could make no reduction. It was agreed that the courts should be let to two local organisations which had applied for certain fixed evenings throughout the summer, no allowance to be made for inclement weather.

On the subject of the letting of the Coronation Park cafe during the coming summer, it was reported that no applications had been received.

The question of lighting the clock in the Guildhall Square and also of regilding its hands is being investigated as well as the installation of lights in the lanterns at the Town Hall entrance.

It was agreed that the Medical Officer should sign notices being prepared by Launceston Grocers' Association, for display in members' shops asking the public not to bring dogs into food shops.

Four quotations were received from local undertakers for the carrying out of burials under the National Assistance Act, and it was agreed to accept the lowest quotation (£11 13s. per burial).

Mrs. Keast was elected to the local Food Control Committee as a consumer member, in place of Mr. G. A. Reynolds, resigned through ill-health.

A further consignment of 96 food gift parcels from Australia has been received and is to be allocated. This will be the last consignment.

FARMERS WATCH HEDGE TRIMMER.

SUCCESSFUL LAUNCESTON DEMONSTRATION.

A machine which would cut a neat slice off the top of your favourite privet fence as easily and as quickly as you could cut a round of bread, was demonstrated on Tuesday afternoon at Woburn, Launceston (by permission of Mr. Gerald Peter).

The weather was very poor, with heavy rain showers and a blustering wind, but, whirling, nipping and sawing, this fearful-to-watch monster crept along the hedgerow, leaving in its wake a tangled mass of severed growth and bushes. The top and sides of the hedge were now neatly trimmed.

It was a most effective demonstration, conducted by Mr. E. Owen Jenkin, the local contractor, and the general opinion of the farmers who had come to watch (some from quite long distances) was that this machine was the best of its kind they had seen. Although not capable of really heavy work (it is, after all, only a hedge trimmer), it is fully able to deal with the roughest hedgegrowth with consummate ease.

Simple to look at when stationary, this machine consists roughly of a four feet circular saw attached to the end of a long steel arm extending from the side of a platform on which the operator is positioned behind a wire screen. Standing on four rubber wheels, the whole thing is fully mobile and, when in action, the rotary blade is driven at high speed from the shaft of the towing tractor. The actual pitch of the blade has to be fixed beforehand, but the steel arm may be extended or retracted, raised or lowered (to follow the line of the hedge) by means of two control wheels, while the machine is at work.

Mr. Jenkin said that the hedge trimmer's average performance was roughly a four feet cut at 2 m.p.h. It would clear the hedges on a 200 acre farm in about two or three days, and do as much work in an hour as a man with a hook could do in three days. Mr. Jenkin has had orders from Devonshire farmers who are finding the machine invaluable in clearing their roadside hedges, for which they are now responsible.

Lady Richmond Brown's estate at The Kelsova, Cornwall, has been transferred to the National Trust in part-payment of death duties.

BERNARD SHORE PLAYS AT LAUNCESTON

WORLD-FAMOUS VIOLIST IN SYMPHONY CONCERT.

Following a similar celebrity concert last year, when Leon Goossens, the celebrated oboist was the soloist, a Launceston audience had a rare musical treat at the Town Hall, Tuesday, when they were able to hear Bernard Shore, world-famous master of the viola.

The occasion was a symphony concert which also featured the Launceston College Orchestra (leader, Ella Herschmann, professor, Vienna Conservatoire), under the baton of H. Spencer Toy, who had arranged the event as a musical contribution to the town's Festival of Britain activities, and who is to be congratulated on securing so eminent an artiste to perform locally. It is to be regretted, however, that the professing music-loving population of the town and district did not give the event the support it merited.

Mr. Shore displayed all the virtuosity expected of him, and his mastery of his instrument was complete. The choice of programme was best calculated to display the varied facets of the viola, ranging from works by Frescobaldi to the present-day English composer, Vaughan Williams, with a pleasing excursion into Dvorak's Slavonic Dance, in a Kreisler arrangement. An able partnership was set up with the celebrated soloist by William Pearson at the piano, and this was particularly marked in Handel's Sonata in D, with its adagio, allegro and largo movements. Mr. Shore also played an aria from one of the Bach cantatas.

He delighted the audience not only with his playing, but with a fascinating resume of the history of the viola. He showed all the knowledge and ability which have made his books, "The Orchestra Speaks," and "Sixteen Symphonies," so notable.

The orchestra, 70 strong, with no less than 52 stringed instruments, showed its capabilities in works by Beethoven, Haydn and Mendelssohn, being at its best in the more vigorous selections, with "The War March of the Priests" bringing the programme to a robust conclusion. In Haydn's Trumpet Concert, the soloist was Roger Crocker, who displayed a fine tone, the bloom of which showed a surprising maturity for such a young player. His technical ability was marked, particularly in the many chromatic passages. He has recently played with the National Youth Orchestra at the Albert Hall, London, under Sir Adrian Boult, and is one of several College boys to have been so honoured in the past few years.

Mozart's Suite in G was played by a group of strings drawn from the more mature members of the orchestra, and Madame Herschmann's guiding hand was evident in the sure way in which this music was played, despite a certain uneasiness which appeared in an inner part in the second movement. But this smaller group was able to impart more subtlety and nuances to its playing than the full orchestra, and it was a delightful interlude.

LAUNCESTON BROADCAST NEXT WEDNESDAY

45-MINUTE PROGRAMME IN 'HERE IS OUR HOME' SERIES.

Launceston's contribution to the B.B.C. series, "Here is Our Home," in which the cities of Bristol and Plymouth have already been featured and the hamlet of Bolventor is yet to come, will be broadcast next Wednesday (May 30), from 10 to 10.45 p.m. in the West Home Service. As will be remembered, the B.B.C. recording car spent several days in the town gathering material for this feature.

In a programme note, the B.B.C. calls Launceston "the ancient capital of the county," and goes on to say: "Launceston's history is an ancient and romantic one dating from the days of Anglo/Saxon government in the Earldom of Cornwall, and interwoven with the Norman and Plantagenet monarchies. Charles Causley, who has written the script, is a native of the town and is a schoolmaster there, and the production bears the mark of the impression which his birthplace made on him after coming back to it again from war service. It is rather more of a personal picture than the two previous programmes in this series but will contain recordings made by various people who live there. The production is by Brandon Acton-Bond, who also produced the Plymouth programme in this series."

NORTH PETHERWIN.

Church services next Sunday: Matins, 11 a.m.; Sunday School 2.30 p.m.; Evensong (Mr. F. Harper), 6.30 p.m.

A number of North Petherwin boys were fortunate enough to be amongst the large party of school children which visited Windsor last week.

The Parish Club held a successful outing to Land's End on Whit-Monday. Stopping places en route included Truro (where a visit was made to the Cathedral), Penzance and St. Ives. Arrangements were carried out by the energetic secretary, Mr. H. Hicks. The Club is to remain open in June, by way of experiment for the summer months.

At the Parish Church on Sunday, Choral Evensong took place and the recommendations of the Royal School of Church Music were followed. They made an interesting and helpful change from the usual and more familiar way of rendering the musical part of the service. Hymns were heartily joined in by the congregation and the specially augmented choir for the occasion sang an anthem. Mrs. H. Jones was at the organ. At Matins the organist was Mr. I. Metherell.

LAUNCESTON

The rain held off on Sunday evening and Launceston Municipal Band were able to render selections as arranged in the Coronation Park.

P. H. M. Oliver, of Launceston College, secured 85 marks in the violin solo, intermediate, class at the Cornwall Music Festival Competition at Bodmin, Wednesday.

The Final Distribution of food parcels from Sydney, Australia, to residents of the Borough, was made yesterday (Thursday), Empire Day, when 100 parcels were distributed.

Believed to be the first time that all three towers have joined in the occasion for many years, the bells of St. Thomas, St. Mary's and St. Stephen's Churches rang out on Monday in honour of the Mayor-choosing.

Affray Appeal Fund.—Previously acknowledged, £7 10s.; Launceston Brotherhood, £4; Councillor Hender, £1; Mrs. F. J. Reed, 10s.; Mrs. M. Turner, 10s.; Councillor T. Hicks, 10s.; Mr. T. Pode, 10s.; Anon., £1 1s.; Anon, 10s.; total, £16 1s.

At Werrington Park.—A 'bus load of Women Conservatives enjoyed a very pleasant evening at Werrington Park on Friday, when Commander and Mrs. Williams conducted the party round the gardens and plantations of lovely rhododendrons and azalias.

Ordination.—Among those ordained to the Priesthood by the Lord Bishop of Monmouth at his Trinity Ordination was Rev. Stanley J. K. Toms, B.D., son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. Toms, of Roydon Road, Launceston. Mr. Toms is, at present, acting as assistant priest in the parish of Fleur de Lys, Monmouthshire.

Visit of Lady Baden Powell.—In her itinerary of Cornwall, the Chief Guide (Lady Baden Powell) will visit Launceston to-morrow (Saturday) morning, when she will attend a rally in the Coronation Park of Brownies, Guides and Rangers of the North-East Division. If wet, the event will be held in the Drill Hall. The public, as well as parents, are invited to attend.

Toc H.—On Monday Mr. J. R. Ravensdale, M.A., gave a informative talk on the Workers' Educational Association, outlining its history from its formation in 1903 when its main ideal was the unity of labour and learning. He stated that it was a crusading movement always stimulating and striving to provide adult education of the highest standards and that it had a democratic structure based on student control, and, in his opinion, its members had essentially the same fine spirit as those of Toc H.

Launceston Women's Branch of the North Cornwall Conservative Association met on Thursday week at the Club. Wednesday & Thursday meetings will now alternate each month. Mrs. R. Barriball (chairman) presided, and there was a good attendance. Mrs. Giberne gave her impressions of the Women's Conference at Westminster and the Albert Hall Mass Meeting in April, and there followed a general exchange of household hints, many of which will certainly be tried out! Tea, served by Mrs. Oke and her helpers, completed an enjoyable afternoon.

W.E.A.—St. Stephen's-with-Launceston W.E.A. Branch members and friends on Saturday afternoon visited a number of pre-historic sites of considerable interest in the Caradon area. At Trethevy Stones ("the place of the graves") they were joined by members of the Liskeard Branch. From there they visited King Doniert's Stone, the three pre-historic circles known as the Hurlers, and the Cheesewring. At each of these sites much interesting information was given to the Group by Mr. J. Ravensdale, M.A. (Tutor-Organiser for North Cornwall). The party had tea at Minions and, later in the evening, a camp fire supper, before returning to Launceston.

Launceston Old Cornwall Society's first pilgrimage of the summer season took place on May 12th, to Caerhayes Castle and Gorran. In perfect weather, the magnificent display of flowering shrubs in the Caerhayes gardens were much admired. Members learned that Buckingham Palace and Caerhayes Castle were designed by the same architect. After a long walk through the gardens, a picnic tea was had on Porth Lunney beach. After tea the party went into Gorran Church, where they were welcomed by the Rev. J. R. Jose (late curate of St. Mary's). After seeing this fine church Mr. Jose escorted the members to the Chapel of St. Just at Gorran Haven. The little building on the cliff edge, with its minstrels' gallery in the West end, was of great interest to all.

Sunday Services.—Wesley Methodist Church—11 a.m., Rev. Chris. H. Tice; 6.30 p.m., Rev. R. Cullington. Tower Street Methodist Church—11 a.m., Mr. J. W. Best; 6.30 p.m., Mr. E. Uglow. St. Stephen's Methodist Church—11 a.m. and 6.30 p.m., Mr. G. T. Finnemore. Roman Catholic Church—8 a.m. and 11 a.m., Mass; 6.30 p.m., sermon and Benediction, Fr. C. J. White. Salvation Army—11 a.m., 3 p.m. and 6.30 p.m., Senior Major Thomas and Ensign Thomas. Castle Street Church—11 a.m., Rev. F. Russell Jewry; 6.30 p.m., Mr. Cyril Reed. Assemblies of God Church—11 a.m. and 6.30 p.m., Mr. R. Sheer. St. Stephen's Parish Church—9 a.m. and 12, Holy Communion; 11 a.m., Litany and sermon; 6.30 p.m., Evensong. Langore Mission—3.30 p.m., Evensong. St. Thomas Church—11 a.m., Mayoral service; 3 p.m., children's service; 6.30 p.m., Evensong, followed by Holy Communion. St. Thomas Mission, Tregadillett—3 p.m., Evensong. St. Mary Magdalene Church—8 a.m., Holy Communion; 11 a.m., Matins; 2.45 p.m., children's service; 6.30 p.m., Evensong.

YOUNG FARMERS' CLUB.

Financial Difficulties—Subscription Raised.

At a meeting of the Launceston Young Farmers' Club, held in the Y.M.C.A. on Thursday week much discussion took place with regard to the Club's financial difficulties, and in an effort to alleviate these it was agreed to raise the annual subscription to 10/- per member. Members also decided that the voluntary subscription fund for the Edwin Baker Memorial Cup should remain open until September, to give all who wished an opportunity of contributing. The summer programme arranged includes a visit to the B.O.C.M. factory at Bristol on July 2nd, a clay pigeon shoot, and various practices for competitions at the forthcoming agricultural shows.

IRISHMAN SENT TO PRISON.

Drunk and Disorderly.

A 38-years-old Irishman, Matthew Byrne, of no fixed abode, was sent to prison for 28 days by Launceston Magistrates yesterday (Thursday) on a charge of being drunk and disorderly in Northgate Street, at 9.35 p.m., the previous evening. He pleaded "Guilty."

Inspector Juleff told the magistrates that P.C. May was on duty in the Square about 9.30 p.m., when he received a complaint about a man turning over dust bins and using obscene language in the vicinity of the church in Northgate Street. On the constable's arrival he saw the accused rolling about the road, and shouting, singing at the top of his voice, and using the most filthy language. The constable tried to reason with him, but he continued to shout and swear. He took him to Mr. Smith's lodging house, but Mr. Smith did not know anything about him and refused to take him in, in view of his condition. Mr. Gerald Woolnough, a bakery manager had to assist the constable to take him to the police station, so bad was his condition, and he had to be carried into the cells. The Inspector understood that the accused had been drinking cider. "I must say that for a man of 38 to be travelling about the country, when there is so much work to be done, is a very sad state of affairs," commented the Inspector. The accused had been lifting potatoes.

Answering Mrs. Galbraith, the accused said there was difficulty in getting lodgings in the ordinary lodging-houses, but Inspector Juleff pointed out that where men are employed in potato lifting, lodgings were provided.

LIBERAL ASSOCIATION.

Mr Dingle Foot, the prospective Liberal Candidate, addressed a large and enthusiastic audience at the Liberal Club on Monday (reported on page 3). The meeting was presided over by the newly-appointed Deputy-Mayor (Mr. S. D. H. Cavey), the chairman of the Association, who was congratulated by Mr. Foot on his appointment. Votes of thanks to Mr. Foot were proposed and seconded by Mr. J. W. Best and Miss G. Stanbury respectively. After the meeting, refreshments were served by Mesdames Kavanagh, Sandy and Kerslake, and Misses Pearce and Weighell, and a happy social hour followed, when Mr. Foot answered many questions put to him by individual members of the audience. A basket of groceries, in charge of Miss D. Brent, the secretary of the Launceston Young Liberal Association, was won by Mrs. A. Dodge. Also present at the meeting were Capt. F. Parkinson Bates, the president of the North Cornwall Liberal Association, who addressed the meeting, and Mr. F. L. Tyrrell, the Liberal Agent.

THE RULES OF LIFE.

Mr. Alfred Saunders, of Bude addressing Launceston Brotherhood on Sunday, said there was a great deal in the sporting public of the British people in that they accepted decisions without comment or recrimination. It was a splendid characteristic of their country. They believed in sticking to the rules. Life was very much like that; it had its rules and could not be properly lived until they were prepared to know and keep the rules. There was, he said, a determined attempt to undermine their loyalty to the rules of the right way of life, and he gave several illustrations supporting that statement. The rules given them by God were for some deep spiritual purpose. If they disregarded those rules, the individual suffered and the public disintegrated. Communism was out to break up society and man's moral sense. If they wanted to keep their society stable and prosperous they had to restore man's moral sense. The future of the country depended on whether men and women were prepared to live up to the high ideals, and if they wanted the power to live right they would find it through Jesus Christ.

Mr. R. Edmonds presided.

The collection for the Affray Appeal Fund taken the previous Sunday amounted to £4. The speaker on Sunday will be Pastor W. E. Watkin.

ROTARY CLUB ANNUAL MEETING.

The fourth annual general meeting of the Launceston Rotary Club was held in conjunction with a dinner on Monday, when the activities of the Club during the year were reviewed. President Frank Jordan presided. The Secretary reported that the Club had received 125 visitors during the year, a number of whom came from overseas. Members had for their part visited many other clubs, including those at places as far apart as Dublin and Rome. Speakers at club luncheons had reflected the international character of Rotary, members having been privileged to hear during the course of the year first-hand accounts of events in Jamaica, Canada, Poland, Germany, Australia and Tasmania.

The President said he was happy to note that members had achieved an average attendance of 85% during the year. Attendance at District functions had also been good.

The following appointments were made for the Rotary year commencing 1st July: Rotarians W. P. Hender, president; C. H. Robins, senior vice-president; R. Geake, junior vice-president; C. R. Lees, treasurer; F. Jordan, secretary; G. P. Crabb, assistant secretary; council, Past Presidents W. Edwards, W. E. Miller, W. O. Steer, and Rotarians J. Perry, R. Lippiatt, and M. H. B. Truscott.

"LILLI MARLENE" CONTEST.

Launceston's Lilli Marlene singing competition winner, selected by popular vote at performances at the Tower Cinema on Thursday week, was Mrs. Jean Gilbert.

This recorded voice contest, which is running at cinemas in South Wales and South-West England, is open to all cinema-goers over 16. The competitors appear before a microphone on the stage of their local cinema to announce themselves to a full audience and to sing one chorus of the song "Lilli Marlene." They were judged by audience applause, and the recorded voices of the local winners are sent to London, where they are to be judged with recordings from other areas. The finalist is to be given a short, but first-class, holiday in London—with pocket money provided!

At the Tower Cinema, the competition ran for two performances. At the matinee, the heat winner was Miss Hilda Bailey, and others singing were: Miss Beryl Baker (Coad's Green), Miss Mary Edwards, and Mr. Jim Bailey. At the evening performance Mrs. Jean Gilbert was heat winner and also defeated Miss Bailey in the final. Mrs. Eileen Hancock (Rilla Mill) was runner-up. Others singing were: Mrs. Cornish (Coad's Green), Miss Lillian Burge, Mr. George Thomas and Mr. R. D. Martin (Rilla Mill). The finalists received a prize of two guineas, and the two runners-up free cinema passes for one month.

The prizes were presented by the compere, Mr. E. O. Parker (supervisor Cornwall circuit).

The audience sang a chorus from the popular song "Down at the Ferry Boat Inn," which was recorded and played back to them on the spot.

The local organiser for the event was Mrs. A. Lovatt (Tower Cinema manager).

DEATH AND FUNERAL OF MRS. W. CRAIG-THOMSON.

The funeral took place at St. Mary Magdalene Parish Church, Launceston, yesterday (Thursday), of Mrs. Emma Lavinia Craig-Thomson (widow of Rev. William Craig-Thomson). A native of Launceston, Mrs. Craig-Thomson was the only daughter of Mrs. A. Sandercock and the late Mr. R. Sandercock, of 11, Angel Hill. She had lived for several years at Plymouth, where she died in hospital in her 76th year. Her husband's name will always be associated with St. Mary's for the services he rendered the church. He died in 1935. The mourners were met at the church by the Vicar (Rev. W. O. Steer), who conducted the service, and a surpliced choir.

Mourners were: Mr. Colin Craig-Thomson, son; Mr. Charles Sandercock, brother; Edgar, Ivy, Charlie and Brian, nephews and niece; Mesdames P. and G. Sandercock, sisters-in-law; Mrs. Davies (niece) and Mr. H. Davies, Mr. and Mrs. Austin (Plymouth), Messrs. Bathgate and Bealings, and Mrs. Gillespie (Plymouth), friends. Unable to attend through indisposition were: Mr. Cosmo Craig-Thomson, son; Mrs. Annie Sandercock, mother; Gwen, niece.

Also attending were: Messrs. A. Badge and A. Wroth, Mesdames A. Eles, C. Sandercock, W. J. Rickard, Coumbe and R. Barkwell, Miss F. Hillman.

In addition to a large cross on the coffin from her two sons, there were floral tributes from: Mother, brother and sister-in-law; Gladys, sister-in-law; Edie, Briss, family, 16, Trecarrell; Gwen and Jimmy; Ivy and Jack; Edgar and Charlie; her little darlings, Wendy, Marie and Joy; Pat, and family; Winnie and children, 5, St. Thomas Road; Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Metherell, and Mrs. Gregory, neighbours at Angel Hill.

BONFIRE ON KIT HILL.

LAST LINK IN CORNISH CHAIN.

After a lapse of several years, there will be a bonfire on Kit Hill on Midsummer Eve. Callington Young Farmers' Club and Youth Club will see to that, in conjunction with Saltash Old Cornwall Society.

On Tuesday, representatives of the Clubs made arrangements for collecting fuel and conveying it to the hill-top. The bonfire will be set alight between 10 o'clock and 10.30. It will form the last link in the chain of fires being lit by Old Cornwall Societies along the backbone of the Cornish peninsula.

ENTRIES UP; ATTENDANCE DOWN.

LYDFORD SPORTS AND GYMKHANA.

Lydford Sports Committee held their annual sports and gymkhana at Coppathorne on Saturday. The entries were of a high standard, but the attendance was poor.

The entries in the jumping class for the Priston Cup were excellent. The winning horse, "Ajax," owned by Sgt. Craddock, of the Commando School Bickleigh, was ridden by Hazel Hill, of Peter Tavy, who also rode her own "Tit Willow" for second place. She won the children's riding class and rode the winner in the first and second places in the children's jumping class. The Radford Cup was won for the second year in succession by Mr. J. Guscott, of Bridestowe, on "Irish Dandy" in the hurdle race. Mr. J. Burley, of Mary Tavy, on "Sparky" maintained his reputation by winning the walk, trot and gallop. The men's mile was won by a local runner, Mr. S. Hannaford. The prize for skittling was closely contested and was won by Mr. S. Dawe, of Brenton.

CANWORTHY WATER.

A demonstration of pressure cooking was given at the May meeting of the Canworthy Water W.I. by Mrs. Hicks, of Launceston. Miss J. Wonnacott proposed a vote of thanks to the demonstrator. The competition, Cornish pasty, was won by Mrs. E. Sloman. Tea hostesses were Mrs. Parsons, Mrs. Holden and Mrs. Main. Games were in charge of Mrs. Petherick.

GREETINGS FROM NEW ZEALAND.

The chapel was tastefully decorated for the anniversary services held on Whit-Sunday and Tuesday. Sunday's preacher was Mr. S. A. Conibear, of Trebullett. On Tuesday the afternoon service was conducted by Rev. E. A. Ball, of Lifton. Tea followed, served by Mesdames L. N. Holden, W. Dinner, M. Burden, C. Heard, E. H. Sloman, E. Fishleigh, Misses K. Littlejohns, J. Wonnacott, Inez Fishleigh, S. Petherick, G. Werring, J. Hatch, V. Heard, C. Cowling. The evening meeting was presided over by Mr. J. Bray, of Liskeard (who formerly resided at East Langdon, and a local preacher in the Week St. Mary Circuit), the speaker being Rev. E. A. Ball. Mrs. C. Hambly, of New Zealand, formerly a scholar of the Sunday School, brought greetings from New Zealand.

Dr. Barnardo's Homes admitted 80 newcomers during April.

MYSTERY TRIP.

Much speculation was aroused among members of St. Mary's Fellowship as to the destination in their mystery trip on Monday. Setting out on the Callington road, and then going in the Saltash direction, they were not sure, until a right fork took them through Landrake, that they were bound for the once-important spot of St. Germans. They were shown round the old priory church, which combines the best in old and comparatively modern work in a fine whole, and also conducted through the gardens of Port Eliot Estate, where the wonderful blooms were much admired. They were taken around the Church by Mr. W. G. Broad, for many years schoolmaster of St. Germans. He pointed out Anglo-Saxon, Norman and early English stonework, and said the West Norman doorway of seven arches of dogs'-teeth, surmounted by a Celtic cross, was one of the glories of Cornwall. Mr. Broad pointed out the East window, at 32 feet the highest in the county, and also the features of the side chapel probably built to contain the relics of St. Germanus. Although half hidden by the hills around the creek, its early importance can be attributed to the easy access by river from the Plymouth district of Devon. It was the seat of a Cornish Bishopric until merged with Crediton before the Conquest. Mr. Broad said that even after that date it was still regarded as the Cathedral Church of Cornwall, as the mass ordinations held there in the fourteenth century by Bishop Stapleton showed. The Vicar thanked Mr. Broad. The party had supper on the homeward journey at Liskeard. It is interesting to note that the old name was revived early this century when a suffragan bishop was appointed and was styled Bishop of St. Germans.

ST. MARY MAGDALENE.

St. Mary Magdalene Parish Church was very prettily decorated by the ladies for the Whitsun Festival, and it was still looking nice for services on Sunday (Trinity Sunday). The services on Whit Sunday were well attended, and the Vicar had the assistance of Rev. L. G. H. Farley, of Lewannick, for the early morning celebration of Holy Communion. There was a record number of communicants for Whitsun. There was a procession at the evening service.

The choir held their festival on Sunday, when collections were devoted to choir funds. The service in the evening, conducted by the Vicar, was sung to the setting Bairstow in E Flat. A rendering of Sebastian Bach's famous chorale "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," was given by the choir. In an address Rev. E. Royle (Rector of Holsworthy) said they were slow to realise there was a lot of music they could understand if they troubled to learn. They had to remember they had come into the presence of God. It had to be the best, and they did like the best when they got to know it. However, the choir were not only expressing worship, they were helping people to worship and very often they took a lot of trouble to sing a well-known service better, rather than a new setting.—The service ended with a procession and the Blessing.

The lessons were read at this service by Mr. C. S. Rabley, who was admitted into the office of a lay reader of the Church by the Archdeacon at St. Mary's during Evening Prayer a fortnight ago. On Sunday morning he had conducted Matins at Egloskerry, where services have been maintained by lay readers and local clergy while the living has been vacant.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

without Calomel—and you'll jump out of bed in the morning full of vim and vigour

The liver should pour out two pints of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. You get headaches and feel rotten. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, slack, and the world looks black.

Laxatives help a little, but a mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good old Carters Little Liver Pills to get these two pints of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carters Little Liver Pills. Stubbornly refuse anything else. 1/9 and 4/3.

That's worth knowing—

"I always thought there wasn't much difference between tyres."

"Well, as I say, I've been using tractors since I was a lad and I'd pick Firestone every time. There's a lot of difference, believe me . . ."

There's a very big difference: Take materials for a start: Firestone buy only materials which have passed the most uncompromising tests in their own laboratories. Only one quality is good enough . . . Firestone quality. Take production: a Firestone tyre at every stage of its manufacture is tested and re-tested by the most critical technicians in the industry. Their standards are simple . . . 100% or nothing. Take finished tyres: what was proved in the factory Firestone's test engineers prove afresh in the field—on every kind of surface Firestone tyres must take the rough with the smooth—that's what Firestone tyres have to face. That is why Firestone produce tyres of such consistently high quality.

Firestone are such consistently good tyres!

GUNNISLAKE FARM BLAZE.

CAR, TRACTOR AND BUILDINGS DESTROYED.

Damage estimated at over £1,000 was caused when a 1938 Austin 12 saloon car, a 1949 Ferguson tractor, a large garage and two cattle sheds were completely destroyed by fire late on Saturday night at Todsworthy Farm, Albaston, Gunnislake. The buildings were the property of Mr. J. H. Woolcock, who had gone to bed, was aroused about 10.45 p.m., when the fire was discovered. Callington and Tavistock Fire Brigades were called, and although they were unable to save any of the buildings, they managed to prevent the fire spreading to the farmhouse and other large outbuildings.

Mr. Woolcock informed our reporter that the car was put in the garage at about 2.30 p.m. on Saturday afternoon and the tractor in the same garage, behind it, at about 3 p.m. He said he passed the garage at about 9.30 p.m. but did not notice or smell anything unusual. It is believed the fire was started by a short-circuit in the car. All the damage was covered by insurance. Mr. Woolcock removed seven young calves from one of the cattle-sheds during the fire, and luckily no cattle or persons were hurt.

CALLINGTON.

Callington Brotherhood on Sunday afternoon was addressed by Rev. O. Kirkby Evans, of Saltash (Superintendent East Cornwall Mission). Solos were sung by Miss Margaret Langdon, the pianist being Mr. R. Flinn. Mr. W. J. Folley was in the chair.

There was an open meeting of Callington Sisterhood on Monday afternoon when an interesting address was given by Miss Gladys Aylward, who has spent many years in China and Japan. Vocal solos were contributed by Madam Eileen Short, the pianist being Miss P. S. Stone. Mrs. W. H. Martin presided.

MASONIC HALL TO BECOME WOMEN'S INSTITUTE.

Callington Women's Institute's five-year-old ambition is about to be realised. Ever since the Institute was formed in 1946, members have looked forward to the time when they would have a place to call their own. Meanwhile, meetings have been held at the Church Guild Room and the Launceston Road Methodist Schoolroom. Now the Institute, which has a membership of nearly 100, has agreed to purchase the Masonic Hall in Haye Road for £800. Donations and loans towards the purchase money are promised.

A substantial building, the Hall was erected in 1879 at a cost of £600, but improvements and additions have been made since then. After 72 years' occupation of it, the Freemasons of Loyal Victoria Lodge are removing to larger premises, the former Methodist Church in Tavistock Road, which they acquired recently for £1,300. Miss Margaret Harris (President of the Institute) told our correspondent that members hoped to hold their June meeting in their own building following a formal opening ceremony.

GUNNISLAKE.

Calstock Branch of the Mothers' Union met at St. Anne's Church, Gunnislake, on Thursday week, when members from Calstock, Harrowbarrow and Gunnislake attended. The service was conducted by the Rector (Rev. Hubert de Labat), who also gave the address. Two new members and a new associate were enrolled. A [illegible] followed in the Church School[illegible] where tea was served by the Gunnislake members. The organist for the service was Miss E. L. Sims.

'SKYLON' AT GUNNISLAKE.

Gunnislake Old-Tyme Dancing Club's second annual dinner and ball for members and invited guests only, was an outstanding success. Held on Thursday week in the Market Hall, Gunnislake, the tables were attractively decorated with beautiful flowers, through the kindness of Mr. and Mrs. J. Rowe. Just over 130 sat down to dinner, which was presided over by Mr. W. J. Honey (chairman and leader of the Club). He spoke of the very great friendship with other clubs. He warmly thanked Mr. W. Riley (instructor) and his wife, of Callington, for their valuable services, and said that there would have been no old-time dancing if it had not been for them. He welcomed leaders and representatives from old-time dancing clubs at Callington, St. Mellion, St. Cleer, Tavistock and Tamerton Foliott. He also welcomed Mr. and Mrs. W. Carrol, of Wales, and Mr. L. Clack, of the Isle of Wight, all founder-members of the Gunnislake Club who had travelled back especially for the occasion. He thanked Mr. Carrol for his gifts of miniature cups for the recent Valeta competitions, and stated that Mr. Carrol would repeat this kindness during the next session. Other speakers included leaders of other olde-tyme dancing clubs—Mr. G. Seddon (Callington), Mrs. Eileen Finnemore (Tamerton Foliott), Mr. Jack Richards (Tavistock), and Mr. J. R. Edmunds (St. Cleer). Mr. W. Riley and Mrs. W. Carrol also spoke. Mr. W. J. Honey made a presentation to Mrs. Riley of four miniature brass candlesticks on behalf of the Gunnislake Club. Following the dinner, all present moved to the Public Hall, which had been tastefully decorated by the Committee and members. The stage, which was decorated with evergreens and fairy lights, held a 12-foot high red, white and blue crepe-paper "Skylon," which had been made by the Chairman. Music was supplied by Mr. W. J. Honey and his amplifiers, and the M.C. was Mr. W. Riley, who was presented with a bunch of lilies of the valley during the evening by Mrs. H. Rowse (Chillsworthy).

WRONG SIDE AROUND THE ROUNDABOUT.

KELLY BRAY DRIVER ON 'UNDER INFLUENCE' CHARGE.

William Pickard, aged 61, a builder, of Launceston Road, Kelly Bray, was alleged by the Police to have driven his van so as to take a Plymouth traffic-roundabout on the wrong side and to have entered a dual carriageway road also on the wrong side. When stopped, his speech was said to be slurred and he smelt strongly of alcohol.

This evidence was given by P.C. N. Croft to Plymouth Magistrates, Monday, when Pickard was charged with driving the vehicle while under the influence of drink. He pleaded "Guilty."

Pickard said that he was sorry for his unfortunate lapse. He had been driving for 27 years without even a police warning. On the day concerned, he said he had two or three drinks in Plymouth, and it must have got him down. He added: "It is a great blow to me, especially after having served many years in the Army with a clean record, to be in this court with this charge hanging over my head."

He was fined £15, ordered to pay £2 2s. costs and had his driving licence suspended for two years. He was told by the presiding magistrates that the disqualification would have been for a far longer period had it not been for his 27 years' clean record.

NEW CANON FOR TRURO CATHEDRAL.

The King has approved the appointment of Rev. Guy Arthur George Bowden, Chaplain of King Alfred's College, Winchester, to the residentiary canonry in Truro Cathedral, vacant following the death of Rev. Canon Roland Harry William Roberts.

FRIENDS OF TRURO CATHEDRAL.

The annual meeting of the Friends of Truro Cathedral at Truro on Saturday heard from the hon. secretary (Mrs. Peggy Pollard) that the membership now totalled 920. The legacy of the late Mr. F. B. Rogers, amounting to over £4,000, had been received, and a grant of £150 had been made to the Cathedral for the purchase of 26 cassocks for the choir and for other items.

Moving the adoption of the report, Mr. F. E. Church said they had been able to hand over to the Cathedral their yearly instalment of £300.

Officers were elected, and among the elected members was Mrs. Algernon Thynne.

STOWFORD.

In connection with the right-of-way dispute between Mrs. Grafton and Mr. and Mrs. Frecar, reported last week, the Judge granted Mrs. Grafton an injunction, and awarded her damages of £5 and costs. In our report the words "and costs" were inadvertently omitted.

A decision not to entertain any more applications for aid in repairing churches, other than cathedrals, is announced in the annual report of the Pilgrim Trust.

RETIRING AFTER 40 YEARS' SERVICE.

ARMY'S FIRST COMMISSIONED COOK RETURNS TO ST. KEW.

After an absence of nearly half a century Major Arthur T. Warne, who retires at the end of this month after 40 years' continuous service in the Regular Army, will return to St. Kew, the parish of his birth. The son of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. Warne, who for a number of years kept the Red Lion Inn at St. Kew Highway, Major Arthur Warne is one of seven brothers who between them have completed 137 years of military service. Major Warne spent his schooldays at St. Kew Church of England School, when the late Mr. Jacob Stone, of Trequite, was headmaster.

Major Warne has had a distinguished and fascinating career, being the first skilled cook to hold commissioned rank in the Army. He joined the Army in April, 1911, at the age of 14, as a boy with the Royal Regiment of Artillery, subsequently serving in the R.A.S.C. and the Army Catering Corps. He saw service on many fronts in the First World War and was twice wounded. He has held every rank in the Army from Boy and Trumpeter up to Major. He will be remembered in St. Kew not least by the stalwarts of the Old Bodmin Town Football Club, for whom he played for some years. He also represented the Army at association football against the Royal Navy in 1921.

Major Warne has seen many changes in cooking and catering in the Army. He remembers the time when all meals were served in the barrack-room, an N.C.O. putting the meals on the plates and shouting "See them off." There would then be one mad dash to grab the biggest ration. This contrast with the present-day cafeteria system in the men's dining-room, where the men go with their trays and choose from a variety of dishes.

A list of the military service of these seven brothers makes interesting and inspiring reading. They are: Major Sam Warne, O.B.E. (Rtd.), Royal Artillery, 25 years (now a member of the Executive Council of the British Legion); Bombardier Sidney Warne, Royal Artillery, 12 years (thereafter spent 30 years with the South African Railways and died on retirement); Corporal Herbert Warne, Royal Artillery, eight years (lost an eye and was badly gassed in the 1914-18 War, died at Bodmin); Major Arthur T. Warne, Royal Regiment of Artillery, Royal Army Service Corps, and Army Catering Corps, 40 years; Warrant Officer Harry Warne, Royal Air Force, 28 years (now retired and living at 186, Station Road, Henlow Camp, Bedfordshire); Capt. Guy Warne, Royal Artillery, 22 years (now retired and living at Hillingdon, Middlesex); Colour-Sergeant Norman Warne, Devonshire Regiment, 10 years (killed on active service in India).

S. AFRICAN DAUGHTER NOT LEFT OUT.

TELEPHONE LINK WITH STOKE GOLDEN WEDDING.

Celebrating their golden wedding anniversary at their home at Pempwell, Stokeclimsland, on Friday, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Henwood had a cake with 50 candles, a party, and all their family gathered around them—except for one married daughter who now lives in South Africa. But the family circle was completed, vocally at least, for at 12 noon a telephone call across oceans and continents enabled Mr. and Mrs. Henwood to talk to the absent daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Rowe.

Mr. and Mrs. Henwood, who are well known throughout the district, received a host of greetings and congratulations from their many friends. They have four daughters and one son, and nine grandchildren. Mrs. Henwood came from South Petherwin on her marriage, being a Miss Kate Tink. Her parents formerly farmed at Stenhill, North Petherwin.

Mr. Henwood, who farms at Pempwell, Stokeclimsland, has a long record of public service. For well over 40 years he was a member of the Launceston Rural Council, and its chairman for a considerable period. He was also a member of the Board of Guardians in its various forms for that period, and he was on the original Assessment Committee for the district. As R.D.C. chairman, he sat on the Launceston County Bench of Magistrates for many years, and among other offices he has held is that of president of the local Nursing Association, as well as being on the district Civil Defence Committee. He has always taken an active interest in all Stokeclimsland affairs.

He is a staunch Liberal, and an active Methodist, both he and Mrs. Henwood being closely connected with the Downhouse Chapel, where he is secretary and treasurer both of the Chapel and the Sunday School, as well as being a trustee. Guests at luncheon and tea on Friday included Rev. M. de Jersey Lark, of Callington, who paid tribute to Mr. and Mrs. Henwood's active association with Downhouse Chapel. Among the telegrams of congratulation received was one from the Rector of Stokeclimsland (Canon L. M. Andrews).

Mr. Henwood is widely known as a good farmer, his South Devon cattle being notable and winners of many show prizes. A member of the Launceston Agricultural Association, he has been a dairy cattle judge at many shows. He is also noted for his fine horses, and his present carefully matched pair, Royalty and Silver, are recognised as the finest couple in the district. Royalty came to Mr. Henwood in a blaze of publicity a year or so ago, after a ceremonial farewell to the Royal Navy, having previously been owned by the Senior Service at Devonport.

MEASLES RAGING AT LIFTON.

REPORT TO TAVISTOCK R.D.C.

Reporting that whooping cough, measles and mumps had been prevalent throughout the area, the Medical Officer (Dr. E. D. Allen Price) at Friday's meeting of Tavistock Rural Council added that a measles epidemic was raging at Lifton.

Dr. Price also reported on contaminated water supplies at Bere Alston and Bere Ferrers, which, he said, "were very bad indeed." He recommended chlorination of the water.

From the District Surveyor (Mr. W. E. Nicholas), the Council learned that use of modern machines had made it possible to spread grit and chippings over 744 miles of roads in Devon last year, more than 55 miles being in the Tavistock district.

In an attempt to overcome the housing shortage situation, the Council decided to ask the Ministry both for extra allocations of licences and for the transfer to the Tavistock district of licences not taken up in other districts.

SCHOOL SPORTS AT TAVISTOCK

Fourteen schools competed in the Devon Public and Grammar Schools' Girls' Athletic Association sports held at Tavistock on Saturday. Plympton won the shield for the fourth year in succession.

Local results included: Throwing cricket ball, junior—3, Okehampton. High jump—2, Tavistock. Discus—1, Tavistock; 3, Okehampton. Javelin—1, Okehampton; 3 Tavistock. 220 yards—2, Tavistock. Hurdles—3, Tavistock. Hop, skip, jump, senior—2, Tavistock. Relay, junior—3, Tavistock.

HENWOOD.

The anniversary services of Henwood Sunday School were held on Whit-Sunday and the following Tuesday. The services on Sunday were conducted by Rev. Basil Bowyer. On the Tuesday there was a tea for children followed by a public tea, served by Mesdames Polkinghorne, T. Hooper, S. H. Bassett, Misses P. Harvey, A. Palmer and D. Hooper. At the evening meeting, the chair was taken by Mr. Collingson (Redhill, Surrey), the speaker being Mr. R. J. Hooper (Common Moor). Mr. S. H. Bassett read the report, which showed a balance in hand of £10 16s. 2d. The organist at all services was Miss A. Palmer. Mr. C. Coumbe proposed a vote of thanks to Mr. Hooper and Mr. Collingson, and to all who had helped.

BOYTON.

Parishioners are sorry to hear that Mr. J. H. Symons, Talstone, is in Launceston Hospital for observation and treatment and wish him a speedy recovery.

TREGADA.

The anniversary services were held at Tregada Wesley Chapel on Sunday and Tuesday week. On Sunday the preacher was Mr. K. J. Uglow, of South Hill. The services were continued on Tuesday by a faith tea, presided over by the ladies of the Sunday School. The evening service was conducted by Rev. Chris H. Tice, of Launceston, the chair being taken by Mr. S. Carne, of Stokeclimsland. The report, read by the secretary showed a balance in hand of over £9. Mr. W. Grigg presided at the organ.

Princess Elizabeth ended her tour of Sussex on Saturday by attending a performance of a pageant in the grounds of Arundel Castle.

Mr. E. O. Wheale, at the meeting at Penzance of the Executive Committee of the Society for the Prevention of Accidents in Disused Mineshafts, suggested that small area sub-committees be formed to find the owners of shafts and get them made safe.

Official Hotel Guide. — What is claimed to be the most comprehensive hotel guide produced in this country has been published by The British Hotels and Restaurants Association. A unique feature of this guide is the alphabetical illustrated directory which this year gives a picture and full details of tariff and amenities for 2,150 member hotels and restaurants. Appropriately, this section for Festival Year is larger than ever before. Also included are three-colour road maps of Great Britain and a calendar of sporting fixtures, etc. Copies are available at booksellers or the Association's headquarters, 88, Brook Street, London, W.1., price 3s. 6d. (4/- by post.)

THEY BOUGHT A HOUSE WITH THEIR WINNINGS.

A young couple in Wales have just won enough money to buy a house, and so they say it is conclusive proof of the Legend of the 300 year old Wishing Cork Tree. Another couple had a piece of Lucky Cork sent to them by a relative and got an empty house two days afterwards. A lady in Doncaster sent for a piece and won £3,000 on a penny points pool. A wife gave her doubting husband a piece of Lucky Cork for his birthday and two weeks after he won £1,500. A mother sent each of her sons a piece and one of them won £4,003 in a sweepstake. If you would like further particulars, send stamped addressed envelope to Wishing Cork Tree, Combe-in-Teignhead, Devon.—(Advt.) 82

Mr. Kemal Tanoglou, Director of the Turkish State Agricultural Buying Organisation, Turkiye Zirai Kurumu, who is now in Britain, has placed an order for over 2,300 Fordson Major Tractors.

The R.A.F. Benevolent Fund spent £156,394 during the first three months of the year on all forms of assistance to serving and ex-Service members of the R.A.F., W.R.A.F. and their dependants. Help was given to 6,433 cases.

LOOKING BACK.

25 YEARS AGO, May 29, 1926.

Deaths. — Ayres: At Trevadlock Cross, Lewannick, Grace Ayres, 87. Blake: At Wooda, Stokeclimsland, Henrietta, 17. Folley: In Canada, Charlie, 40, late of Lezant. Rowe: At Camelford, Eveline, 35. Sandercock: At Cross, Callington, William, 76. At Bridge Street, Stratton, Mary Ann, 81.

The Tetcott Otter Hounds, under Huntsman Phil. Back (68, and looking like reaching the century before retiring) had a great hunt from their meet at Bude, Whit Monday. Finding at Hele Bridge, hounds went 3½ hours to a kill, without leaving the water, one of the finest hunts ever remembered.

The Bude Tennis Club wrote to the Stratton and Bude U.D.C. asking permission for cars to be parked on the Downs near the cricket and tennis pavilions. The Council, at their meeting, Friday, declined, pointing out there was a car park nearby at Crooklets.

A large crowd assembled at Launceston, Thursday, for the first celebration of Empire Day in the town. The scheme was inaugurated by Sister Bessie Skinner, who led a procession of local organisations to a service in the Square, both the Launceston Town and Salvation Army Bands providing the music. A downpour of rain curtailed the ceremonies, however.

Because of the strike in the mines, coal is rationed from to-day (Friday). The ration is ½-cwt. a week.

40 YEARS AGO, May 27, 1911.

Death.—Harris: George, of Sidney Villas, North Road, Holsworthy.

Stratton and Bude Urban Council, Friday, accepted the lowest tenders submitted for a shelter and for the Isolation Hospital. They were: Shelter, Mr. F. Cann, £43 10s. 6d.; Hospital, Mr. Cann, £375.

Preparing some ground for tilling mangolds, Mr. John Medland, 58, mason, of Canaford Water, Otterham, collapsed and died while working beside his son at Marshgate, Monday. Inquest verdict: "Natural causes."

So far as is known there is no record of the bounds of the parish of North Tamerton ever having been beaten until Monday, when, having been stirred up by the Rector, a number of parishioners met at Deer Bridge to make the attempt.

50 YEARS AGO, June 1, 1901.

Deaths.—Crago: At Coad's Green, the widow of William, 72. Neale: At Camelford, James, 79. Gill: At Launceston, John, 42. Greethurst: In London, Emma Jane, daughter of the late Henry Greethurst, of Camelford. Polkinhorne: At Plymouth, Henry, late of Altarnun. Walter: At Geraldton, West Australia, John, 57, son of the late James Walter.

A lad named Cecil Dyer, aged 10, was drowned in a disused lime quarry at Wolladon, Lifton, on Friday.

Holsworthy and Stratton Agricultural Exhibition was held at Holsworthy on Thursday. Entries totalled 360. The President was Mr. Edward Shearme.

At the Southern Railway, Launceston, on Monday, John Gill, of Deakins Cottages, Newport, was killed when he was caught between two trucks during shunting operations.

60 YEARS AGO, May 30, 1891.

Deaths. — Allin: At Chilsworthy, Holsworthy, the widow of Thomas, 75. Ellacott: At Clubworthy, North Petherwin, 24. Littlejohns: At Northgate Street, Launceston, the widow of John, 55. Mallett: At Wadebridge, the wife of F. J. Mallett, 74. Sleep: At St. Stephens, Launceston, William, 54.

Rev. C. W. H. Rolley, vicar of Okehampton for the last 17 years, died on Friday in a fit.

The Duke of Norfolk and party, who spent the latter part of last week at Boscastle, attended Divine Service at the Roman Catholic Church on Sunday.

Launceston tradesmen on Monday discussed the possibilities of closing at 2 p.m. on Thursdays.

The Solway Queen, which went ashore at Morwenstow, was successfully refloated on Saturday. Holes in the ship were filled with cement and after some rocks had been blasted away, two tugs took her off easily into deep water, and she continued her voyage up channel.

70 YEARS AGO, May 28th, 1881.

There was a wave of fires in the district, Monday. A farmhouse at Undertown, Lezant, occupied by Mr. Kennard, was destroyed, and a fire at the Molesworth Arms, Pyworthy, occupied by Mr. Penwarden, originated in the thatched roof and spread to the adjoining cottage occupied by Mr. William Stevens. Both were burnt to the ground. Bray's Hill farmhouse, in the parish of Marhamchurch, owned by Mr. Symons, of Stratton, and occupied by Mr. Grigg, was completely destroyed. Here again the fire started in the thatched roof. A cottage in Burn Lane, near North Brentor village, occupied by Mr. Roger Rice, was burnt to the ground. This fire also started in the thatch roof. The cottages on either side escaped, having slate roofs, but an outhouse was burnt down.

On Monday Mr. H. Welch was presented with two valuable books by the teachers of the United Methodist Free Church Sunday School, Camelford.

Stephen Luke, ostler of Lee's Commercial Hotel, Wadebridge, was on Saturday afternoon returning from St. Tudy with a waggon load of hay, when the horses bolted at Kelly Green and he was thrown out and killed.

The Launceston Rural Sanitary Authority has appointed Mr. Frederick Williams, of Polyphant, medical officer of health, at a salary of £30 per annum.

80 YEARS AGO, May 27, 1871.

Deaths. — Pearce: At Trefrew, Camelford, the widow of Mr. T. Pearce, 85. Pitts: At Okehampton, Mrs. Rebecca Pitts, 88. Pollard: At Bodieve, Wadebridge, the wife of Richard, 48.

Civil war is in progress in France.

The foundation stone of the new Wesleyan chapel at South Petherwin was laid on Tuesday. The contract price for the edifice is £1,050.

90 YEARS AGO, May 25, 1861.

The Mayor (J. Dodge, Esq.) presided at the second anniversary of the Launceston Branch of the Western Provident Association, held at the National School, Monday. The Association gives full pay to members not only during sickness, but, unlike other societies, also during their progress to recovery, when, owing to returning appetites, expenses are more.

The new Wesleyan Chapel at Lanteast is nearing completion, while steps have been made to commence a similar building at Broadwood. These add other instances of the earnestness and liberality of the Wesleyans of the Launceston Circuit, where during the past few years, several beautiful and costly chapels have been erected.

LABOUR BAZAAR AT WADEBRIDGE.

RESPONSIBILITY TO MAKE NATIONALISATION WORK.

Each of the 12 local Labour parties in the Division made contribution to the bazaar and fun fair organised by the North Cornwall Divisional Labour Party in the Town Hall, Wadebridge, on Saturday. Bude, Launceston, Delabole, Newquay and Padstow were responsible for well-laden stalls, and Wadebridge for refreshments, and there were various contributions, including a "fishing" contest conducted by Labour supporters from St. Austell. Mr. R. J. Allen (Bude), secretary and agent, was in charge of a literature stall.

At the opening, Mr. G. Craddock, M.P. for Bradford South, said if they were to have changes they had to have fundamental changes. They had for years complained of private enterprise and the lean time the workers had had, but it must be understood they had a responsibility to make nationalisation work and the country run smoothly. He hoped all concerned with nationalised industries would work in the spirit of nationalisation, of public enterprise and of Socialism itself. "The establishment of a Socialist society and our nearness or otherwise to do it, depends not only on Members of Parliament, prospective candidate and officials of the Labour Party but on each and every one of you," he said.

Mr. W. B. S. Hoggins, Divisional Chairman, presided and Mr. Craddock and the helpers were thanked by Mr. W. C. Perman, prospective Labour candidate for North Cornwall.

During the afternoon there was a Punch and Judy show for the children and a whist drive, and in the evening St. Breward Male Voice Choir, the Radicks' Trio, Sally Rickard (girl soprano), and Miss Betty Harris (songs), were the artistes at a concert compered by Mr. Hoggins.

ONE DRAMA PROJECT WAS ILL-FATED.

'SAINT TRIUMPHANT' FOR BODMIN, ST. AUSTELL, AND WADEBRIDGE.

For two years plans have been made and work has been going on to provide the contribution of Cornish drama to the Festival of Britain. The nine area Drama Committees, the County Federation of W.I.s, the Cornwall Religious Drama Fellowship, the Methodist Church Council and other bodies have all been helping, and a summer festival is scheduled for July and August. Cornwall's unique open-air stages are to be used, and Cornish dramatists have written special plays for the occasion. More than 70 W.I. and other drama groups have contributed funds and volunteer actors, costume-helpers and stage-managers have been forthcoming. Among the works specially commissioned for the Festival was a three act play, "Saint Triumphant," by H. B. Willmott, to be presented as a group production by the dramatic societies of Bodmin, St. Austell and Wadebridge, but this project was ill-fated. The Churches of St. Austell and Wadebridge were found to be too small to accommodate the large cast involved, and Bodmin could not find sufficient actors for more than one act. However, another play on St. Petroc is being written, which will have a cast small enough to be given by the members of the Bodmin societies. Other plays to be given in various parts of the county include "Tristan of Cornwall," "The Boy from Ervot," "Women of Cornwall," and "The Wesley Tapestry." A central booking office is being established and will open at Bishop's Library, Truro (Truro 2771), on June 1st.

CORNISH FARMERS VISIT EIRE.

Visiting Eire on a ten-day holiday and business tour, 60 Cornish farmers and their wives left their homes on Monday. They travelled in two coaches which started from Lostwithiel, picking up other members at Liskeard and Launceston.

Two members going on the journey from Launceston area were Mr S. N. Gubbin and Mr. Charles Hutchings, both of North Petherwin. About twenty on the visit are from North Cornwall, including Camelford, Wadebridge, Launceston and Stratton.

The tour consists of visits to farms, factories and the Kildare races, etc., the party dividing their stay between Dublin and Cork.

They were given an official send-off at Liskeard.

The organiser is Mr. E. Cross, Liskeard (Area Organiser), himself an Irishman, assisted by Mr. W. J. Huxtable.

TETCOTT.

Evensong in the Parish Church [redacted] Sunday was conducted by Rev. Phili at present residing in Holsworthy, is to be the new Rector of Clawton and will have charge of Tetcott and Luffincott.

Dr. Adenauer, the West German Chancellor and Foreign Minister, has accepted Mr. Herbert Morrison's invitation to pay an official visit to London during the Festival of Britain.

ASHWATER.

FUNERAL OF PREB. G. D. MELHUISH.

The funeral of Prebendary G. D. Melhuish, a former Rector of Ashwater, whose death was reported last week, took place on Tuesday week at the Parish Church amid manifold tokens of sympathy. The remains were brought home the previous day, and rested in the church he loved and devoutly cared for. Robed clergy present were Rev. R. J. D. Newhouse (Rector), the Bishop of Crediton representing the Bishop of Exeter, Archdeacon of Totnes, Revs. F. H. Kingdon (Bridgerule), E. Royle (Holsworthy), R.D., W. H. T. Ravenhill (Sutcombe), A. Dawes (Budleigh Salterton), and C. D. Jenkin (Milton Damerell). The procession was met at the church gate by the clergy headed by the processional cross carried by Mr R. H. Moon.

The service, which was conducted by the Rector, was of a simple character. Mr. L. May was at the organ, and the lesson was read by Father F. Kingdon. Rev. A. Dawes said prayers. The Archdeacon gave the address and spoke in high praise of the work Preb. Melhuish did for the Parish and Deanery. Prayers at the graveside were said by Rev. W. H. T. Ravenhill, and the blessing was pronounced by the Bishop.

Mourners present were: Dr. T. W. Melhuish, son; Miss W. Melhuish, daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Burnett, son-in-law and daughter; Mrs. Tom Melhuish, daughter-in-law; Capt. and Mrs. J. Melhuish, Mr. J. Burnett, Mr. P. Melhuish, Mrs. Hedley and Miss E. Burnett, grandchildren; Mr. and Mrs. P. Hart-Smith, Misses Ethel and Hope Melhuish, Miss Smith-Pearce, cousins; Mr. G. Carlyle and Miss M. Carlyle (also rep. Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Carlyle). Mrs. and Master Newhouse, Miss Wilson, nephews and nieces.

Official bearers were: Messrs. W. Isaac, F. and J. Barnett, R. H. Clifton, T. Rockey and P. W. Hart.

Sympathisers present included: Dr. S. Craddock, Messrs. P. Spry (Launceston), F. Hamly, R. H. Hart, Barten, W. Jackman, J. Oliver, H. Parnell, H. Smale (Clawton), W. Bailey, A. Cobbledick, Colin James, T. Davey, W. Davey, H. Jones, G. Metters, W. Bailey, W. Fry, A. Squire, English, S. Bray, J. Argall, F. Pope, J. Newbery, W. Littlejohns, G. Kivell (rep. Rudland, Mr. and Mrs. Rippon, Mr. and Mrs. W. Odam, Mr. and Mrs. Passenger, Misses N. J. Bennett (Launceston), Rockey, E. Walters, H. Northcott, W. Ruby, P. Newberry, and others.

At the close of the funeral service a muffled peal was rung on the bells.

Floral tributes were: With great love, Winnie, Mary, Fred, John and Elizabeth; with much love, Tom and Molly; with much love, from his grandchildren, Katharine, John, Ursula and Phillip; Ashwater Church with respect, affection and sincere sympathy; St. Peter's Church, Budleigh Salterton; John, Winnifred, Robert and Hugh; Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle, and family; I. M. Hockin, Sybil and Colin; M. and B. Dudgeon; N. Hayman and family; Harold and June, Chris and Hope; Mrs. H. Nuthall; Rev. W. LOVELY TO LOOK AT—
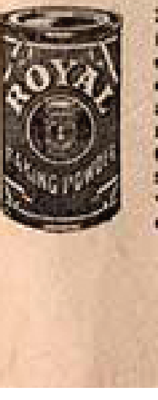
AND SO EASY TO MAKE!

Gooseberry Gateau

THIS WONDERFUL gateau looks fit to win a baker's gold medal, but you've no idea how easy it is! You just can't go wrong if you use Royal Baking Powder. Royal will make the sponge so light it melts in your mouth! Surprise your family with Gooseberry Gateau tomorrow!



USE ROYAL AND BE SURE!

INGREDIENTS:
8 oz. plain flour;
4 level teasps. Royal Baking Powder;
pinch of salt;
3 oz. sugar; 3 oz. margarine;
1 teaspoon vanilla essence;
¾ pint milk and water;
1 lb. gooseberries.

METHOD:
Sift together flour, Royal and salt, rub in fat, add sugar and vanilla essence and mix to a dropping consistency with the liquid. Place in a greased 7-inch cake tin. Bake in moderate oven for ¾ hour, 375° (Regulo 4). When cold, cut a large shallow round from top of cake, fill with canned or stewed gooseberries, decorate with mock cream if desired.

WEEK ST. MARY W.I. PRESENT CAVALCADE.

FAMOUS CORNISH WOMEN AND INDUSTRIES.

At the May meeting of the Week St. Mary branch of the Women's Institute, a cavalcade of famous Cornish women, important industries and distinctive dishes was presented by members of the Institute. This performance was produced by Miss Teague, a keen member of the Institute and a former president, and was watched with much enjoyment and interest by an audience of members and friends.

After an introduction, spoken by Miss Gubbins, a solo was sung by Miss S. Maddock, after which, those representing the historical characters, dressed in costumes of the period, made their way down the centre aisle of the hall and took their places on the stage, finally making a delightful and colourful tableau.

The accompanying dialogue was read by Mrs. N. Gubbin and Mrs. Townend.

The characters represented were Thomasine Bonaventure (Miss A. Colwill), Mary Newman (Mrs. F. H. Martin), Ann Jeffries (Miss P. Jones), Dolly Pentreath (Miss I. Martyn), Mary Davenport (Mrs. L. Vedrenne), Mary Kelynack (Mrs. W. Jones), Ann Glanville (Mrs. R. Petherick). The Cornish industries shown were: Tin (Mrs. W. Ridgeman), Slate (Miss E. Paynter), Fish (Mrs. P. Pearce), Granite (Miss A. Smale), Cornish Serpentine and Wolfram (Miss S. Jones), China Clay (Mrs. R. Squires), Market Gardening (Miss M. Cobbledick), Bamboo Growing (Mrs. A. Martin). The special Cornish dishes, cream pastry, saffron cake, splits and marinaded fish were demonstrated by: Mesdames W. Horrell, J. Ayres, R. Paynter, L. Hutchings, and Miss Parsons.

A small choir, Mesdames T. Pauling, D. Treleaven and Miss S. Maddock, sang typical Cornish songs and a Cornish carol, the accompanist being Mrs. A. Sandercock. After an inspiring epilogue had been recited by Miss Paynter, the entertainment came to a close.

Miss Orchard expressed the thanks and appreciation of those present, and Miss A. Colwill presented a bouquet to the producer, Miss Teague. Tea was then served and the pleasant evening concluded. The tea hostesses were Mesdames J. Squire, F. Parnell, S. Ridgeman, L. Colwill, and Miss A. Smale. The competition, Telegram from the word "Inconceivable," was won by: 1, Miss E. Paynter; 2, Mrs. R. Johns.

LOCAL WINNERS AT DEVON COUNTY SHOW.

Week St. Mary Man Wins Championship.

Local winners at Devon County Show in addition to those mentioned last week were:

Exmoor ponies, filly or gelding 2 or 3 years old—2, Miss S. Jennings, Beaworthy.

Shoe-making, open championship, agricultural horses—2, W. G. C. Masters, Week St. Mary; 3, C. Tuvey, Okehampton. General smithing, open—1, T. H. Conibear, Hartland; 2, C. R. Lawrence, Torrington; 3, W. G. C. Masters.

Goats, female kid born on or after January 1, 1951, and before March 18, 1951 entered in Saanen or British Saanen Section of Herd Book—2, Mrs. H. Irwin, Okehampton.

Young farmers, sheep shearing by hand, residents in Devon, any age—1, W. Gilbert, Beaworthy.

Mr. J. H. Cole, of Tavistock won the City of Exeter Perpetual Challenge Cup for the exhibitor gaining most points in the agricultural horses, cattle sheep, and pig sections.

The total attendance for the three days was 36,049, compared with 44,106 at Barnstaple, 49,176 at Newton Abbot in 1949, and 27,341 at Tavistock in 1948.

RESOLUTIONS FOR W.I. ANNUAL MEETING.

Among resolutions to be moved at the Cornwall Federation of Women's Institutes annual meeting at Truro W.I. Centre on Wednesday are: That the C.W.F.I. revert to the practice of holding Autumn Council meetings in a place other than Truro—moved by Bodmin W.I. and seconded by St. Stephen's-by-Launceston W.I.; and a protest, moved by St. Kew W.I., against the very high cost of children's clothing, "which appears to be out of proportion to that of adults."

MORAL WELFARE WORK IN CORNWALL.

Miss M. Escritt Atkin, organising secretary and lecturer to Exeter Diocesan Council for Moral Welfare Work, told Cornwall Social and Moral Welfare Association at its annual meeting at Truro, Friday, that family life in this country had suffered a deadly blow from the present housing difficulties.

Lack of space for family meals, games, hobbies, reading and homework was, she said, a serious handicap for the expression of family life.

The Secretary (Miss Margaret E. Smith) appealed for more support from all Christian congregations. Income was £761, and expenditure £1,088.

THIEVES TAKE LEAD FROM MABE CHURCH ROOF.

Thieves have stripped about 60 square feet of lead from the roof of Mabe Church, and have done damage which is estimated at £100.

Over three hundredweight of lead roofing was ripped away and considerable further damage done to surrounding slatework.

BRATTON CLOVELLY.

An organ recital was given in the Parish Church after the evening service on Whit-Sunday by Mr. Roy Hatch, of Plymouth, before a large and appreciative congregation. The organist's rendering of Handel's Largo and the Bach-Gounod, Ave Maria, was particularly enjoyed. The Rector, Commander the Rev. W. H. Graves, afterwards thanked Mr. Hatch on behalf of the congregation for his excellent recital. Until recently, Mr. Hatch was assistant organist to the Chapel Royal.

PATIENTS' FARES TO CLINICS.

By stopping the payment of patients' fares to clinics the National Health Act had made medical treatment more difficult to obtain, Mrs. A. Bickford-Smith, hon. secretary, told the annual meeting of the Cornwall Committee for the Care of Cripples, at Truro, Thursday week.

"The number of attendances at clinics is considerably lower than formerly, and there is no doubt that the withdrawal of payment of fares to patients is very largely responsible for this," she said.

HOSPITAL AID SOCIETY.

Membership of the Exeter and Western Counties Hospital Aid Society is increasing at the rate of 600 a month, the President (Ald. Vincent Thompson) told the annual meeting of the society at Exeter on Saturday. Ald. Thompson said because of the present pressure on hospital beds patients were turned out at the earliest possible moment. But there must follow a convalescent period at home without income, and for that contingency the society had devised a supplementary scheme.

LIFTON.

LATE MR. G. BELL.

The death took place at the residence of his daughter, 14, Moorfield of Mr. G. Bell.

The funeral took place on Wednesday at the Parish Church, Rev. H. T. Boultbee officiating, with Mrs. G. L. Brimacombe at the organ. The mourners were: Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cole, son-in-law and daughter; Mrs. T. Forster, sister; Mr. R. P. Surtees, brother-in-law.

TWO HANDS OF WHIST—NO TRICKS.

One player at the weekly whist drive in the Men's Institute on Monday failed to secure a trick in two hands. Winners were: Mesdames Gloyn, Sleeman, and W. Taylor (Fore Street); Messrs. Jim Bailey, W. Taylor (Fore Street) and J. Davey (Lifton Down). Competition winners were Mrs. W. Taylor and Mrs. B. J. Venner. Mr. P. Jago was M.C. and Mr. J. Davey was in charge of the competition.

VISIT OF MR. P. KENNEDY.

On Friday a crowded room welcomed Mr. Peter Kennedy to the Coronation Hall, when he was M.C. for the folk dancing so soon after his operation to his nose. The music was supplied by Mr. Kennedy; Mr. Bob Rundle (who is shortly leaving the district for Exeter), melodian; Mrs. Jack Stacey, piano; Mr. W. Vennert drums, and Mr. Nichols, cymbals. Mr. H. Littlejohns was door steward and took £10 11s. Mrs. Stevens was in charge of the refreshments and gave a donation to the folk dance funds.

MAY FESTIVAL.

Despite the bad weather on Saturday, the determination and loyalty of the small group of young people who comprise the United Youth Guild at Tinhay Methodist Church, carried the programme through successfully. In the morning arrangements were made in the field loaned by Mr. N. Williams, but half-an-hour before the start of the the procession it poured with rain. Undaunted, these young people made arrangements for the stall and attractions to be operated in the Schoolroom of the Methodist Church. Here the proceedings were opened by Mrs. L. Lea, J.P., who wished the venture, for Club funds, every success.

By this time the rain had ceased and the organisers decided to make the evening entertainment later and to take the procession around the village. So the May Queen, Miss Sheila Davey, and her attendant, Miss Pat Brimacombe, both attractively attired, took their seats in the specially decorated cart (loaned by Mr. Blatchford) and were hauled around the village by a band of willing youths who took the place of the horse.

THORN CROSS.

The Sunday School anniversary services were held at Thorn Cross Baptist Church on Sunday and Tuesday. Sunday's services were conducted by Mr. G. H. Bartlett, J.P., of Holsworthy. On Tuesday a public tea was served by Mesdames W. Davey, Wilmott, assisted by Mrs. F. Lancaster and Miss M. Martin, while Mesdames P. Littlejohns, S. W. Martin and F. Murran were in charge of the provisions. The evening meeting was presided over by Rev. Russel Jewry. The address was given by Pastor W. E. Watkin, of Launceston, deputising for Rev. E. A. Ball, of Lifton, who was unable to attend through sickness. A satisfactory report was given by Mrs. Murran (secretary). There was special singing at all services the organist being Mrs. G. Helson. All proceeds were for Sunday School funds.

MR. WILLIAM BRENDON (younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Rundle Brendon, of the Falcon Hotel, Bude), a film cameraman, who was drowned off the Irish coast whilst engaged in making a travelogue, "Shark Oil."

KELLY.

ELECTRIC CUT, BUT THE SHOW WENT ON.

The W.I. held their monthly meeting in the Church Hall, Meadwell, on Wednesday week. Mrs. Wood presided and welcomed Miss Ovens, who was to have given a demonstration of various attachments on an electric sewing-machine. Unfortunately, the local supply of electricity was cut off for the day. Mrs. F. May, who lives nearby, brought along her hand model sewing-machine. Mrs. Kelly proposed a vote of thanks. Mrs. Woodhouse (Tavistock) accompanied Miss Ovens, and together they judged the competition, 1, Miss Grout; equal 2, Mr. R. Johns and Mrs. Kelly; 3, Mrs. Johns, sen. Final arrangements were made for a visit to Totnes and Dartington Hall in June. Tea was served. The 'bus, which conveyed Miss Ovens and Mrs. Woodhouse to Tavistock, unfortunately ran over a pig near Lamerton. The passengers were not hurt, but, it is understood, the pig later had to be killed.

LAUNCESTON T.T. AND ATTESTED CATTLE SALE.

Messrs. J. Kittow and Son and Messrs. Vosper and Kivell, joint auctioneers, report a very good entry for this sale on Friday. There were 30 dairy cattle on offer and a few grazing steers and heifers and every animal was sold under the hammer at from firm to good prices. There was a very good attendance and biddings were spirited for the best udder cows and for forward grazers. Prices realised: Attested section—Friesians to 74½ guineas; Ayrshire 75 guineas to 80 guineas for Mr. J. G. Routley; Guernsey heifers 56½ guineas and cows to 60 guineas. Supervised—South Devon dairy cows to 79 guineas; Devon cows 62½ to 65 guineas; yearling heifers to 21 guineas, grazing steers 47 to 56½ guineas; calves to 10½ guineas.

KENNARD'S HOUSE.

Sunday School anniversary services at Kennard's House were held on Sunday and Tuesday week. Sunday services were conducted by Mr. E. Uglow (Launceston) and Miss D. Skitch (Stratton). On Tuesday the scholars were entertained to tea, and this was followed by a public tea, presided over by Mesdames S. Broad, H. Smith, G. Finnemore and C. Wakem. Rev. R. Cullingron was chairman at the service which followed, the guest speaker being Mr. K. J. Uglow (Kingston). Special singing was rendered at all services by the children and friends and was greatly enjoyed by the large congregations present. A solo was given by Miss Christine Jenkin. The organists were Miss M. Ward and Mr. D. Veysey. The annual Sunday School report was read by Mrs. S. T. Finnemore, and showed a satisfactory balance in hand. Sports were organised by Mr. R. Jenkin.

FUNERAL OF MR. ANDREW WEST.

The funeral of Mr. Andrew West (husband of Mrs. Gertrude West) of Kennard's House, Launceston, who died in hospital at Launceston on Tuesday week, took place at St. Thomas Church on Saturday. Mr. West, born in 1868, had lived all his life at Tregadillett and Kennard's House, and was well-known in Devon and Cornwall as a market gardener. A man of strong personality, he was held in great respect by a wide circle of friends. In his youth a keen athlete, he held several prizes for running, and for several years was a playing member of the old South Petherwin Cricket Club. The service was conducted at St. Thomas by the Vicar (Rev. S. Oddie) and Mr. Jones was at the organ.

Mourners were: Mrs. West, widow; Messrs. S., W., C., and T. West, sons; Mesdames S. Quick, A. Jury, E. Lannin, R. Jewell, daughters; Mrs. M. Ware, sister; Messrs. S. Quick, A. Jury, E. Lannin, R.
